UiO : University of Oslo
The Faculty of Law
The punishment, penology and criminal law research group

Wednesday March 11
1000-1200	Registration
1200-1300	Lunch
1300-1400	Plenary 1 (Auditorum 3) Tapio Lappi-Seppälä: Penal Transformations in the Nordics
1415-1545	Parallel session 1 (Room 3109) Charlotte Mathiassen: Ethical considerations - researching women's everyday life in prison Mette Irmgard Snertingdal: Not given lightly: Side-taking in prison research Áine Mangaoang: Creative freedom? The place of music in Norwegian prisons	Parallel session 2 (Room 4110) Robert Andersson: A Post-political Crime Policy Klara Hermansson: Public safety in Sweden. A study of a crime policy symbol Henrik Tham: Populism and the expansion of punishment. The case of Sweden	Parallel session 3 (Room 5110) Tobias Kammersgaard: Policing Drugs Differently: An investigation of alternatives to drug law enforcement in the Danish police force May-Len Skilbrei: Rape as a social, legislative and judicial problem Lena Landström och Markus Naarrttijärvi: "Police innovation and the rule of law - Between uniformity and adaptation".

UiO

1600-1730	Parallel session 4 (Room 3109) Helgi Gunnlaugsson: Recent prison developments in Iceland: Can Iceland be describes as a case of Nordic exceptionalism? Francis Pakes: Iceland's Open Prisons: The pains of imprisonment at the 'shallow end'. Arta Jalili Idrissi: Women's imprisonment in Latvia: The clash of the Soviet and neoliberal 'titans'	Parallel session 5 (Room 4110) Rune Ellefsen – Preventing radicalization and violent extremism in Norway: The emergence of a new field of policy and practice Heidi Mork Lomell – "How could our society let this happen?" Narratives of predictability and preventability after terrorist attacks Ingvild Bruce – Normative standards for the regulation of preventive surveillance measures	Parallel session 6 (Room 5110) Jordan Hyatt – Substance use patterns among inmates in Norway and the necessity of evidence-based treatments in prisons Bjørn Kjetil Larsen: Prison officers' views on interprofessional collaboration in the transition phase from prison to community for male offenders with substance abuse issues in Norway - a mixed method study Frank Nielsen – An investigation of the changing conceptualizations of the drug user studied through changes in the Danish drug legislation 1969-2019

UiO

Thursday March 12
0830-0930	Plenary 2 (Auditorium 3) Philip Brey: Artificial Intelligence in the Criminal Justice System: Risks and Rewards
0945-1115	Parallel session 7 (Room 3109) Dorina Damsa and Peter Scharff Smith: Penal populism, crimmigration, and prison practice in the Nordic welfare state - the case of Denmark Helene O. I. Gundhus: Policing migration as threats: risk assessments and abnormal justice in a welfare state Peter Scharff Smith/Vanessa Barker: Nordic Noir: Reexamining the Penal-welfare Nexus in the Age of Migration	Parallel session 8 (Room 4110) Marte Rua: Living law in Norwegian prisons: Challenging the concepts of solitary confinement Hedda Giertsen: Risks of imprisonment	Parallel session 9 (Room 5110) Linda Kjaer Minke: The war of mobile phones in Danish prisons Noora Lähteenmäki: 'Helped me to go forward with my life': Offenders' and probation practitioners' views on compliance with electronic monitoring Mika Sutela – Development of automatic traffic enforcement and speed fines in Finland7
1130-1230	Plenary 3 (Auditorium 3) Yvonne Jewkes: Exporting the 'fantasy prison': the risks inherent in imaginary Nordic penalities
1230-1300	Lunch
1300-1400	Plenary 4 (Auditorium 3) Ben Crewe: Laissez-faire Inclusion and intervention in and beyond the prison
1415-1545	Parallel session 10 (Room 3109) Louise Hannon and Tonje Lilaas Larsen: Prisoners' need for free legal aid in a welfare perspective	Parallel session 11 (Room 4110) Marte Mo: Risk Assessment of Dangerous Offenders before Release Emma Villman: Gradual release from prison: challenges with a more open enforcement	Parallel session 12 (Room 5110) Johan Boucht: TBC Kristin Hellesø-Knutsen og Kjetil Lussand: TBC Inger Marie Sunde: Crime prevention on the Internet - legal aspects

	Anne Bukten and Marianne Riksheim Stavseth: Suicide in prisoners: A national study of all persons incarcerated in Norway from 2000-2017. Thomas Anton Sandøy: Association between socioeconomic status and drug offending in Norwegian adolescents	Helene De Vos: Security and normalization: a double balancing act
1600-1730	Parallel session 13 (Room 3109) Anja Emilie Kruse: Social responses to narratives of sexual harmdoing Thomas Ugelvik: Desistance and interpersonal trust John Todd-Kvam and Mari Todd-Kvam: Talking good: Analysing Norwegian desistance narratives	Parallel session 13 (Room 4110) Kjersti Lohne: Displacing the penal-welfarism nexus in Nordic punishment Anders Løvlie: Private/public administration of justice Jonna Rennerskog: Governing in the name of protection: The politics of punishment within the welfare system16	Author meets critic 1 (Room 6113) TBC

UiO

Friday March 13
0830-0930	Plenary 5 (Auditorium 3) Marc Engelhart: Legislating Risks in Criminal and Police Law - Solution or Problem?
0945-1115	Parallel session 15 (Room 4110) Andreas Anderberg: Punishment or treatment – handling young offenders between penal and welfare systems Kristian Mjåland: Egalitarianism from within: Hierarchy, virtues and pragmatism in prison social life John Todd-Kvam: Analysing the Norwegian penal field: structure, drivers and practice	Author meets critic 2 (Room 6113) Katja Franko: The Crimmigrant Other: Migration and penal power Comments by Paul Larsson, May-Len Skilbrei & Jan-Paul Brekke.	Parallel session 15 (Room 5110) Berit Johnsen: The greening of prison yards and the free flow of bodies in the outdoor prison space Elisabeth Fransson and Sven-Erik Skotte: Prison design for children and youths in Norway: Technologies expressing normality and exceptional penalty? Sylvia Koffeld-Hamidane and Ellen Andvig: Capacity building in prison - inmates experiences from Bastøy prison Island
1130-1300	Plenary 6 (Auditorium 3) Lucia Zedner: Title TBA Concluding remarks
1300-1330	Lunch		