UNIDROIT PRINCIPLES OF INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL CONTRACTS 2004

Preamble - (Purpose of the Principles)

These Principles set forth general rules for international commercial contracts. They shall be applied when the parties have agreed that their contract be governed by them.¹

They may be applied when the parties have agreed that their contract be governed by general principles of law, the lex mercatoria or the like. They may be applied when the parties have not chosen any law to govern their contract.

They may be used to interpret or supplement international uniform law instruments.

They may be used to interpret or supplement domestic law.

They may serve as a model for national and international legislators.

Chapter 1 - General Provisions

Article 1.1 - Freedom of contract

The parties are free to enter into a contract and to determine its content.

Article 1.2 - No form required

Nothing in these Principles requires a contract, statement or any other act to be made in or evidenced by a particular form. It may be proved by any means, including witnesses.

Article 1.3 - Binding character of contract

A contract validly entered into is binding upon the parties. It can only be modified or terminated in accordance with its terms or by agreement or as otherwise provided in these Principles.

Article 1.4 - Mandatory rules

Nothing in these Principles shall restrict the application of mandatory rules, whether of national, international or supranational origin, which are applicable in accordance with the relevant rules of private international law.

¹Parties wishing to provide that their agreement be governed by the Principles might use the following words, adding any desired exceptions or modifications:

“This contract shall be governed by the UNIDROIT Principles (2004) [except as to Articles ...].”

Parties wishing to provide in addition for the application of the law of a particular jurisdiction might use the following words:

"This contract shall be governed by the UNIDROIT Principles (2004) [except as to Articles...], supplemented when necessary by the law of [jurisdiction X].

Article 1.5 - Exclusion or modification by the parties 17

The parties may exclude the application of these Principles or derogate from or vary the effect of any of their provisions, except as otherwise provided in the Principles. 18

Article 1.6 - Interpretation and supplementation of the Principles 19

(1) In the interpretation of these Principles, regard is to be had to their international character and to their purposes including the need to promote uniformity in their application. 20

(2) Issues within the scope of these Principles but not expressly settled by them are as far as possible to be settled in accordance with their underlying general principles. 21

Article 1.7 - Good faith and fair dealing 22

(1) Each party must act in accordance with good faith and fair dealing in international trade. 23

(2) The parties may not exclude or limit this duty. 24

Article 1.8 - Inconsistent Behaviour 25

A party cannot act inconsistently with an understanding it has caused the other party to have and upon which that other party reasonably has acted in reliance to its detriment. 26

Article 1.9 - Usages and practices 27

(1) The parties are bound by any usage to which they have agreed and by any practices which they have established between themselves. 28

(2) The parties are bound by a usage that is widely known to and regularly observed in international trade by parties in the particular trade concerned except where the application of such a usage would be unreasonable. 29

Article 1.10 - Notice 30

(1) Where notice is required it may be given by any means appropriate to the circumstances. 31

(2) A notice is effective when it reaches the person to whom it is given. 32

(3) For the purpose of paragraph (2) a notice “reaches” a person when given to that person orally or delivered at that person's place of business or mailing address. 33

(4) For the purpose of this article “notice” includes a declaration, demand, request or any other communication of intention. 34

Article 1.11 - Definitions 35

In these Principles 36

-- “court” includes an arbitral tribunal; 37

-- where a party has more than one place of business the relevant “place of business” is 38 that which has the closest relationship to the contract and its performance, having regard to the circumstances known to or contemplated by the parties at any time before or at the conclusion of the contract;

-- “obligor” refers to the party who is to perform an obligation and “obligee” refers to the 39 party who is entitled to performance of that obligation.

-- “writing” means any mode of communication that preserves a record of the information 40 contained therein and is capable of being reproduced in tangible form.

Article 1.12 - Computation of time set by parties 41

(1) Official holidays or non-business days occurring during a period set by parties for an 42 act to be performed are included in calculating the period.

(2) However, if the last day of the period is an official holiday or a non-business day at 43 the place of business of the party to perform the act, the period is extended until the first business day which follows, unless the circumstances indicate otherwise.

(3) The relevant time zone is that of the place of business of the party setting the time, 44 unless the circumstances indicate otherwise.

Chapter 2 - Formation and Authority of Agents 45

Section 1 - Formation 46

Article 2.1.1 - Manner of formation 47

A contract may be concluded either by the acceptance of an offer or by conduct of the 48 parties that is sufficient to show agreement.

Article 2.1.2 - Definition of offer 49

A proposal for concluding a contract constitutes an offer if it is sufficiently definite and 50 indicates the intention of the offeror to be bound in case of acceptance.

Article 2.1.3 - Withdrawal of offer 51

(1) An offer becomes effective when it reaches the offeree. 52

(2) An offer, even if it is irrevocable, may be withdrawn if the withdrawal reaches the 53 offeree before or at the same time as the offer.

Article 2.1.4 - Revocation of offer 54

(1) Until a contract is concluded an offer may be revoked if the revocation reaches the offeree before it has dispatched an acceptance. 55

(2) However, an offer cannot be revoked 56

(a) if it indicates, whether by stating a fixed time for acceptance or otherwise, that it is irrevocable; or 57

(b) if it was reasonable for the offeree to rely on the offer as being irrevocable and the offeree has acted in reliance on the offer. 58

Article 2.1.5 - Rejection of offer 59

An offer is terminated when a rejection reaches the offeror. 60

Article 2.1.6 - Mode of acceptance 61

(1) A statement made by or other conduct of the offeree indicating assent to an offer is an acceptance. Silence or inactivity does not in itself amount to acceptance. 62

(2) An acceptance of an offer becomes effective when the indication of assent reaches the offeror. 63

(3) However, if, by virtue of the offer or as a result of practices which the parties have established between themselves or of usage, the offeree may indicate assent by performing an act without notice to the offeror, the acceptance is effective when the act is performed. 64

Article 2.1.7 - Time of acceptance 65

An offer must be accepted within the time the offeror has fixed or, if no time is fixed, within a reasonable time having regard to the circumstances, including the rapidity of the means of communication employed by the offeror. An oral offer must be accepted immediately unless the circumstances indicate otherwise. 66

Article 2.1.8 - Acceptance within a fixed period of time 67

A period of acceptance fixed by the offeror begins to run from the time that the offer is dispatched. A time indicated in the offer is deemed to be the time of dispatch unless the circumstances indicate otherwise. 68

Article 2.1.9 - Late acceptance. Delay in transmission 69

(1) A late acceptance is nevertheless effective as an acceptance if without undue delay the offeror so informs the offeree or gives notice to that effect. 70

(2) If a communication containing a late acceptance shows that it has been sent in such circumstances that if its transmission had been normal it would have reached the offeror in due time, the late acceptance is effective as an acceptance unless, without undue delay, the offeror informs the offeree that it considers the offer as having lapsed. 71

Article 2.1.10 - Withdrawal of acceptance 72

An acceptance may be withdrawn if the withdrawal reaches the offeror before or at the same time as the acceptance would have become effective. 73

Article 2.1.11 - Modified acceptance 74

(1) A reply to an offer which purports to be an acceptance but contains additions, limitations or other modifications is a rejection of the offer and constitutes a counter-offer. 75

(2) However, a reply to an offer which purports to be an acceptance but contains additional or different terms which do not materially alter the terms of the offer constitutes an acceptance, unless the offeror, without undue delay, objects to the discrepancy. If the offeror does not object, the terms of the contract are the terms of the offer with the modifications contained in the acceptance. 76

Article 2.1.12 - Writings in confirmation 77

If a writing which is sent within a reasonable time after the conclusion of the contract and which purports to be a confirmation of the contract contains additional or different terms, such terms become part of the contract, unless they materially alter the contract or the recipient, without undue delay, objects to the discrepancy. 78

Article 2.1.13 - Conclusion of contract dependent on agreement on specific matters or in a particular form 79

Where in the course of negotiations one of the parties insists that the contract is not concluded until there is agreement on specific matters or in a particular form, no contract is concluded before agreement is reached on those matters or in that form. 80

Article 2.1.14 - Contract with terms deliberately left open 81

(1) If the parties intend to conclude a contract, the fact that they intentionally leave a term to be agreed upon in further negotiations or to be determined by a third person does not prevent a contract from coming into existence. 82

(2) The existence of the contract is not affected by the fact that subsequently 83

(a) the parties reach no agreement on the term; or 84

(b) the third person does not determine the term, provided that there is an alternative 85 means of rendering the term definite that is reasonable in the circumstances, having regard to the intention of the parties.

Article 2.1.15 - Negotiations in bad faith 86

(1) A party is free to negotiate and is not liable for failure to reach an agreement. 87

(2) However, a party who negotiates or breaks off negotiations in bad faith is liable for the losses caused to the other party. 88

(3) It is bad faith, in particular, for a party to enter into or continue negotiations when intending not to reach an agreement with the other party. 89

Article 2.1.16 - Duty of confidentiality 90

Where information is given as confidential by one party in the course of negotiations, the other party is under a duty not to disclose that information or to use it improperly for its own purposes, whether or not a contract is subsequently concluded. Where appropriate, the remedy for breach of that duty may include compensation based on the benefit received by the other party. 91

Article 2.1.17 - Merger clauses 92

A contract in writing which contains a clause indicating that the writing completely embodies the terms on which the parties have agreed cannot be contradicted or supplemented by evidence of prior statements or agreements. However, such statements or agreements may be used to interpret the writing. 93

Article 2.1.18 - Modification in a particular form 94

A contract in writing which contains a clause requiring any modification or termination by agreement to be in a particular form may not be otherwise modified or terminated. However, a party may be precluded by its conduct from asserting such a clause to the extent that the other party has reasonably acted in reliance on that conduct. 95

Article 2.1.19 - Contracting under standard terms 96

(1) Where one party or both parties use standard terms in concluding a contract, the general rules on formation apply, subject to Articles 2.1.20 - 2.1.22. 97

(2) Standard terms are provisions which are prepared in advance for general and repeated use by one party and which are actually used without negotiation with the other party. 98

Article 2.1.20 - Surprising terms 99

(1) No term contained in standard terms which is of such a character that the other party could not reasonably have expected it, is effective unless it has been expressly accepted by that party. 100

(2) In determining whether a term is of such a character regard shall be had to its content, language and presentation. 101

Article 2.1.21 - Conflict between standard terms and non-standard terms 102

In case of conflict between a standard term and a term which is not a standard term the latter prevails. 103

Article 2.1.22 - Battle of forms 104

Where both parties use standard terms and reach agreement except on those terms, a contract is concluded on the basis of the agreed terms and of any standard terms which are common in substance unless one party clearly indicates in advance, or later and without undue delay informs the other party, that it does not intend to be bound by such a contract. 105

Section 2 - Authority of Agents 106

Article 2.2.1 - Scope of the Section 107

(1) This Section governs the authority of a person (“the agent”), to affect the legal relations of another person (“the principal”), by or with respect to a contract with a third party, whether the agent acts in its own name or in that of the principal. 108

(2) It governs only the relations between the principal or the agent on the one hand, and the third party on the other. 109

(3) It does not govern an agent's authority conferred by law or the authority of an agent appointed by a public or judicial authority. 110

Article 2.2.2 - Establishment and scope of the authority of the agent 111

(1) The principal's grant of authority to an agent may be express or implied. 112

(2) The agent has authority to perform all acts necessary in the circumstances to achieve the purposes for which the authority was granted. 113

Article 2.2.3 - Agency disclosed 114

(1) Where an agent acts within the scope of its authority and the third party knew or 115 ought to have known that the agent was acting as an agent, the acts of the agent shall directly affect the legal relations between the principal and the third party and no legal relation is created between the agent and the third party.

(2) However, the acts of the agent shall affect only the relations between the agent and the third party, where the agent with the consent of the principal undertakes to become the party to the contract. 116

Article 2.2.4 - Agency undisclosed 117

(1) Where an agent acts within the scope of its authority and the third party neither knew nor ought to have known that the agent was acting as an agent, the acts of the agent shall affect only the relations between the agent and the third party. 118

(2) However, where such an agent, when contracting with the third party on behalf of a business, represents itself to be the owner of that business, the third party, upon discovery of the real owner of the business, may exercise also against the latter the rights it has against the agent. 119

Article 2.2.5 - Agent acting without or exceeding its authority 120

(1) Where an agent acts without authority or exceeds its authority, its acts do not affect the legal relations between the principal and the third party. 121

(2) However, where the principal causes the third party reasonably to believe that the agent has authority to act on behalf of the principal and that the agent is acting within the scope of that authority, the principal may not invoke against the third party the lack of authority of the agent. 122

Article 2.2.6 - Liability of agent acting without or exceeding its authority 123

(1) An agent that acts without authority or exceeds its authority is, failing ratification by the principal, liable for damages that will place the third party in the same position as if the agent had acted with authority and not exceeded its authority. 124

(2) However, the agent is not liable if the third party knew or ought to have known that the agent had no authority or was exceeding its authority. 125

Article 2.2.7 - Conflict of interests 126

(1) If a contract concluded by an agent involves the agent in a conflict of interests with the principal of which the third party knew or ought to have known, the principal may avoid the contract. The right to avoid is subject to Articles 3.12 and 3.14 to 3.17. 127

(2) However, the principal may not avoid the contract 128

(a) if the principal had consented to, or knew or ought to have known of, the agent's involvement in the conflict of interests; or 129

(b) if the agent had disclosed the conflict of interests to the principal and the latter had not objected within a reasonable time. 130

Article 2.2.8 - Sub-agency 131

An agent has implied authority to appoint a sub-agent to perform acts which it is not reasonable to expect the agent to perform itself. The rules of this Section apply to the sub-agency. 132

Article 2.2.9 - Ratification 133

(1) An act by an agent that acts without authority or exceeds its authority may be ratified by the principal. On ratification the act produces the same effects as if it had initially been carried out with authority. 134

(2) The third party may by notice to the principal specify a reasonable period of time for ratification. If the principal does not ratify within that period of time it can no longer do so. 135

(3) If, at the time of the agent's act, the third party neither knew nor ought to have known of the lack of authority, it may, at any time before ratification, by notice to the principal indicate its refusal to become bound by a ratification. 136

Article 2.2.10 - Termination of authority 137

(1) Termination of authority is not effective in relation to the third party unless the third party knew or ought to have known of it. 138

(2) Notwithstanding the termination of its authority, an agent remains authorised to perform the acts that are necessary to prevent harm to the principal's interests. 139

Chapter 3 - Validity 140

Article 3.1 - Matters not covered 141

These Principles do not deal with invalidity arising from 142

(a) lack of capacity; 143

(b) immorality or illegality. 144

Article 3.2 - Validity of mere agreement 145

A contract is concluded, modified or terminated by the mere agreement of the parties, without any further requirement. 146

Article 3.3 - Initial impossibility 147

(1) The mere fact that at the time of the conclusion of the contract the performance of the obligation assumed was impossible does not affect the validity of the contract. 148

(2) The mere fact that at the time of the conclusion of the contract a party was not entitled to dispose of the assets to which the contract relates does not affect the validity of the contract. 149

Article 3.4 - Definition of mistake 150

Mistake is an erroneous assumption relating to facts or to law existing when the contract was concluded. 151

Article 3.5 - Relevant mistake 152

(1) A party may only avoid the contract for mistake if, when the contract was concluded, the mistake was of such importance that a reasonable person in the same situation as the party in error would only have concluded the contract on materially different terms or would not have concluded it at all if the true state of affairs had been known, and 153

(a) the other party made the same mistake, or caused the mistake, or knew or ought to have known of the mistake and it was contrary to reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing to leave the mistaken party in error; or 154

(b) the other party had not at the time of avoidance reasonably acted in reliance on the contract. 155

(2) However, a party may not avoid the contract if 156

(a) it was grossly negligent in committing the mistake; or 157

(b) the mistake relates to a matter in regard to which the risk of mistake was assumed or, having regard to the circumstances, should be borne by the mistaken party. 158

Article 3.6 - Error in expression or transmission 159

An error occurring in the expression or transmission of a declaration is considered to be a mistake of the person from whom the declaration emanated. 160

Article 3.7 - Remedies for non-performance 161

A party is not entitled to avoid the contract on the ground of mistake if the circumstances on which that party relies afford, or could have afforded, a remedy for non-performance. 162

Article 3.8 - Fraud

163

A party may avoid the contract when it has been led to conclude the contract by the other party's fraudulent representation, including language or practices, or fraudulent non-disclosure of circumstances which, according to reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing, the latter party should have disclosed.

164

Article 3.9 - Threat

165

A party may avoid the contract when it has been led to conclude the contract by the other party's unjustified threat which, having regard to the circumstances, is so imminent and serious as to leave the first party no reasonable alternative. In particular, a threat is unjustified if the act or omission with which a party has been threatened is wrongful in itself, or it is wrongful to use it as a means to obtain the conclusion of the contract.

166

Article 3.10 - Gross disparity

167

(1) A party may avoid the contract or an individual term of it if, at the time of the conclusion of the contract, the contract or term unjustifiably gave the other party an excessive advantage. Regard is to be had, among other factors, to

168

(a) the fact that the other party has taken unfair advantage of the first party's dependence, economic distress or urgent needs, or of its improvidence, ignorance, inexperience or lack of bargaining skill, and

169

(b) the nature and purpose of the contract.

170

(2) Upon the request of the party entitled to avoidance, a court may adapt the contract or term in order to make it accord with reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing.

171

(3) A court may also adapt the contract or term upon the request of the party receiving notice of avoidance, provided that that party informs the other party of its request promptly after receiving such notice and before the other party has reasonably acted in reliance on it. The provisions of Article 3.13(2) apply accordingly.

172

Article 3.11 - Third persons

173

(1) Where fraud, threat, gross disparity or a party's mistake is imputable to, or is known or ought to be known by, a third person for whose acts the other party is responsible, the contract may be avoided under the same conditions as if the behaviour or knowledge had been that of the party itself.

174

(2) Where fraud, threat or gross disparity is imputable to a third person for whose acts the other party is not responsible, the contract may be avoided if that party knew or ought to have known of the fraud, threat or disparity, or has not at the time of avoidance reasonably acted in reliance on the contract.

175

Article 3.12 - Confirmation 176

If the party entitled to avoid the contract expressly or impliedly confirms the contract after the period of time for giving notice of avoidance has begun to run, avoidance of the contract is excluded. 177

Article 3.13 - Loss of right to avoid 178

(1) If a party is entitled to avoid the contract for mistake but the other party declares itself willing to perform or performs the contract as it was understood by the party entitled to avoidance, the contract is considered to have been concluded as the latter party understood it. The other party must make such a declaration or render such performance promptly after having been informed of the manner in which the party entitled to avoidance had understood the contract and before that party has reasonably acted in reliance on a notice of avoidance. 179

(2) After such a declaration or performance the right to avoidance is lost and any earlier notice of avoidance is ineffective. 180

Article 3.14 - Notice of avoidance 181

The right of a party to avoid the contract is exercised by notice to the other party. 182

Article 3.15 - Time limits 183

(1) Notice of avoidance shall be given within a reasonable time, having regard to the circumstances, after the avoiding party knew or could not have been unaware of the relevant facts or became capable of acting freely. 184

(2) Where an individual term of the contract may be avoided by a party under Article 3.10, the period of time for giving notice of avoidance begins to run when that term is asserted by the other party. 185

Article 3.16 - Partial avoidance 186

Where a ground of avoidance affects only individual terms of the contract, the effect of avoidance is limited to those terms unless, having regard to the circumstances, it is unreasonable to uphold the remaining contract. 187

Article 3.17 - Retroactive effect of avoidance 188

(1) Avoidance takes effect retroactively. 189

(2) On avoidance either party may claim restitution of whatever it has supplied under the contract or the part of it avoided, provided that it concurrently makes restitution of 190 whatever it has received under the contract or the part of it avoided or, if it cannot make restitution in kind, it makes an allowance for what it has received.

Article 3.18 - Damages 191

Irrespective of whether or not the contract has been avoided, the party who knew or ought to have known of the ground for avoidance is liable for damages so as to put the other party in the same position in which it would have been if it had not concluded the contract. 192

Article 3.19 - Mandatory character of the provisions 193

The provisions of this Chapter are mandatory, except insofar as they relate to the binding force of mere agreement, initial impossibility or mistake. 194

Article 3.20 - Unilateral declarations 195

The provisions of this Chapter apply with appropriate adaptations to any communication of intention addressed by one party to the other. 196

Chapter 4 - Interpretation 197

Article 4.1 - Intention of the parties 198

- (1) A contract shall be interpreted according to the common intention of the parties. 199
- (2) If such an intention cannot be established, the contract shall be interpreted according to the meaning that reasonable persons of the same kind as the parties would give to it in the same circumstances. 200

Article 4.2 - Interpretation of statements and other conduct 201

- (1) The statements and other conduct of a party shall be interpreted according to that party's intention if the other party knew or could not have been unaware of that intention. 202
- (2) If the preceding paragraph is not applicable, such statements and other conduct shall be interpreted according to the meaning that a reasonable person of the same kind as the other party would give to it in the same circumstances. 203

Article 4.3 - Relevant circumstances 204

In applying Articles 4.1 and 4.2, regard shall be had to all the circumstances, including 205

(a) preliminary negotiations between the parties;	206
(b) practices which the parties have established between themselves;	207
(c) the conduct of the parties subsequent to the conclusion of the contract;	208
(d) the nature and purpose of the contract;	209
(e) the meaning commonly given to terms and expressions in the trade concerned;	210
(f) usages.	211
Article 4.4 - Reference to contract or statement as a whole	212
Terms and expressions shall be interpreted in the light of the whole contract or statement in which they appear.	213
Article 4.5 - All terms to be given effect	214
Contract terms shall be interpreted so as to give effect to all the terms rather than to deprive some of them of effect.	215
Article 4.6 - Contra proferentem rule	216
If contract terms supplied by one party are unclear, an interpretation against that party is preferred.	217
Article 4.7 - Linguistic discrepancies	218
Where a contract is drawn up in two or more language versions which are equally authoritative there is, in case of discrepancy between the versions, a preference for the interpretation according to a version in which the contract was originally drawn up.	219
Article 4.8 - Supplying an omitted term	220
(1) Where the parties to a contract have not agreed with respect to a term which is important for a determination of their rights and duties, a term which is appropriate in the circumstances shall be supplied.	221
(2) In determining what is an appropriate term regard shall be had, among other factors, to	222
(a) the intention of the parties;	223
(b) the nature and purpose of the contract;	224
(c) good faith and fair dealing;	225
(d) reasonableness.	226

Chapter 5 - Content and Third Party Rights	227
Section 1 - Content	228
Article 5.1.1 - Express and implied obligations	229
The contractual obligations of the parties may be express or implied.	230
Article 5.1.2 - Implied obligations	231
Implied obligations stem from	232
(a) the nature and purpose of the contract;	233
(b) practices established between the parties and usages;	234
(c) good faith and fair dealing;	235
(d) reasonableness.	236
Article 5.1.3 - Co-operation between the parties	237
Each party shall cooperate with the other party when such co-operation may reasonably be expected for the performance of that party's obligations.	238
Article 5.1.4 - Duty to achieve a specific result. Duty of best efforts	239
(1) To the extent that an obligation of a party involves a duty to achieve a specific result, that party is bound to achieve that result.	240
(2) To the extent that an obligation of a party involves a duty of best efforts in the performance of an activity, that party is bound to make such efforts as would be made by a reasonable person of the same kind in the same circumstances.	241
Article 5.1.5 - Determination of kind of duty involved	242
In determining the extent to which an obligation of a party involves a duty of best efforts in the performance of an activity or a duty to achieve a specific result, regard shall be had, among other factors, to	243
(a) the way in which the obligation is expressed in the contract;	244
(b) the contractual price and other terms of the contract;	245
(c) the degree of risk normally involved in achieving the expected result;	246
(d) the ability of the other party to influence the performance of the obligation.	247

Article 5.1.6 - Determination of quality of performance 248

Where the quality of performance is neither fixed by, nor determinable from, the contract a party is bound to render a performance of a quality that is reasonable and not less than average in the circumstances. 249

Article 5.1.7 - Price determination 250

(1) Where a contract does not fix or make provision for determining the price, the parties are considered, in the absence of any indication to the contrary, to have made reference to the price generally charged at the time of the conclusion of the contract for such performance in comparable circumstances in the trade concerned or, if no such price is available, to a reasonable price. 251

(2) Where the price is to be determined by one party and that determination is manifestly unreasonable, a reasonable price shall be substituted notwithstanding any contract term to the contrary. 252

(3) Where the price is to be fixed by a third person, and that person cannot or will not do so, the price shall be a reasonable price. 253

Article 5.1.8 - Contract for an indefinite period 255

A contract for an indefinite period may be ended by either party by giving notice a reasonable time in advance. 256

Article 5.1.9 - Release by agreement 257

(1) An obligee may release its right by agreement with the obligor. 258

(2) An offer to release a right gratuitously shall be deemed accepted if the obligor does not reject the offer without delay after having become aware of it. 259

Section 2 - Third Party Rights 260

Article 5.2.1 - Contracts in favour of third parties 261

(1) The parties (the “promisor” and the “promisee”) may confer by express or implied agreement a right on a third party (the “beneficiary”). 262

(2) The existence and content of the beneficiary's right against the promisor are determined by the agreement of the parties and are subject to any conditions or other limitations under the agreement. 263

Article 5.2.2 - Third party identifiable 264

The beneficiary must be identifiable with adequate certainty by the contract but need not be in existence at the time the contract is made. 265

Article 5.2.3 - Exclusion and limitation clauses 266

The conferment of rights in the beneficiary includes the right to invoke a clause in the contract which excludes or limits the liability of the beneficiary. 267

Article 5.2.4 - Defences 268

The promisor may assert against the beneficiary all defences which the promisor could assert against the promisee. 269

Article 5.2.5 - Revocation 270

The parties may modify or revoke the rights conferred by the contract on the beneficiary until the beneficiary has accepted them or reasonably acted in reliance on them. 271

Article 5.2.6 - Renunciation 272

The beneficiary may renounce a right conferred on it. 273

Chapter 6 - Performance 274

Section 1 - Performance in General 275

Article 6.1.1 - Time of performance 276

A party must perform its obligations: 277

(a) if a time is fixed by or determinable from the contract, at that time; 278

(b) if a period of time is fixed by or determinable from the contract, at any time within that period unless circumstances indicate that the other party is to choose a time; 279

(c) in any other case, within a reasonable time after the conclusion of the contract. 280

Article 6.1.2 - Performance at one time or in instalments 281

In cases under Article 6.1.1(b) or (c), a party must perform its obligations at one time if that performance can be rendered at one time and the circumstances do not indicate otherwise. 282

Article 6.1.3 - Partial performance 283

(1) The obligee may reject an offer to perform in part at the time performance is due, whether or not such offer is coupled with an assurance as to the balance of the performance, unless the obligee has no legitimate interest in so doing. 284

(2) Additional expenses caused to the obligee by partial performance are to be borne by the obligor without prejudice to any other remedy. 285

Article 6.1.4 - Order of performance 286

(1) To the extent that the performances of the parties can be rendered simultaneously, the parties are bound to render them simultaneously unless the circumstances indicate otherwise. 287

(2) To the extent that the performance of only one party requires a period of time, that party is bound to render its performance first, unless the circumstances indicate otherwise. 288

Article 6.1.5 - Earlier performance 289

(1) The obligee may reject an earlier performance unless it has no legitimate interest in so doing. 290

(2) Acceptance by a party of an earlier performance does not affect the time for the performance of its own obligations if that time has been fixed irrespective of the performance of the other party's obligations. 291

(3) Additional expenses caused to the obligee by earlier performance are to be borne by the obligor, without prejudice to any other remedy. 292

Article 6.1.6 - Place of performance 293

(1) If the place of performance is neither fixed by, nor determinable from, the contract, a party is to perform: 294

(a) a monetary obligation, at the obligee's place of business; 295

(b) any other obligation, at its own place of business. 296

(2) A party must bear any increase in the expenses incidental to performance which is caused by a change in its place of business subsequent to the conclusion of the contract. 297

Article 6.1.7 - Payment by cheque or other instrument 298

(1) Payment may be made in any form used in the ordinary course of business at the place for payment. 299

(2) However, an obligee who accepts, either by virtue of paragraph (1) or voluntarily, a cheque, any other order to pay or a promise to pay, is presumed to do so only on condition that it will be honoured. 300

Article 6.1.8 - Payment by funds transfer 301

(1) Unless the obligee has indicated a particular account, payment may be made by a transfer to any of the financial institutions in which the obligee has made it known that it has an account. 302

(2) In case of payment by a transfer the obligation of the obligor is discharged when the transfer to the obligee's financial institution becomes effective. 303

Article 6.1.9 - Currency of payment 304

(1) If a monetary obligation is expressed in a currency other than that of the place for payment, it may be paid by the obligor in the currency of the place for payment unless 305

(a) that currency is not freely convertible; or 306

(b) the parties have agreed that payment should be made only in the currency in which the monetary obligation is expressed. 307

(2) If it is impossible for the obligor to make payment in the currency in which the monetary obligation is expressed, the obligee may require payment in the currency of the place for payment, even in the case referred to in paragraph (1)(b). 308

(3) Payment in the currency of the place for payment is to be made according to the applicable rate of exchange prevailing there when payment is due. 309

(4) However, if the obligor has not paid at the time when payment is due, the obligee may require payment according to the applicable rate of exchange prevailing either when payment is due or at the time of actual payment. 310

Article 6.1.10 - Currency not expressed 311

Where a monetary obligation is not expressed in a particular currency, payment must be made in the currency of the place where payment is to be made. 312

Article 6.1.11 - Costs of performance 313

Each party shall bear the costs of performance of its obligations. 314

Article 6.1.12 - Imputation of payments 315

(1) An obligor owing several monetary obligations to the same obligee may specify at the 316 time of payment the debt to which it intends the payment to be applied.

However, the payment discharges first any expenses, then interest due and finally the principal. 317

(2) If the obligor makes no such specification, the obligee may, within a reasonable time after payment, declare to the obligor the obligation to which it imputes the payment, provided that the obligation is due and undisputed. 318

(3) In the absence of imputation under paragraphs (1) or (2), payment is imputed to that obligation which satisfies one of the following criteria in the order indicated: 319

(a) an obligation which is due or which is the first to fall due; 320

(b) the obligation for which the obligee has least security; 321

(c) the obligation which is the most burdensome for the obligor; 322

(d) the obligation which has arisen first. 323

If none of the preceding criteria applies, payment is imputed to all the obligations proportionally. 324

Article 6.1.13 - Imputation of non-monetary obligations 325

Article 6.1.12 applies with appropriate adaptations to the imputation of performance of non-monetary obligations. 326

Article 6.1.14 - Application for public permission 327

Where the law of a State requires a public permission affecting the validity of the contract or its performance and neither that law nor the circumstances indicate otherwise 328

(a) if only one party has its place of business in that State, that party shall take the measures necessary to obtain the permission; 329

(b) in any other case the party whose performance requires permission shall take the necessary measures. 330

Article 6.1.15 - Procedure in applying for permission 331

(1) The party required to take the measures necessary to obtain the permission shall do so without undue delay and shall bear any expenses incurred. 332

(2) That party shall whenever appropriate give the other party notice of the grant or refusal of such permission without undue delay. 333

Article 6.1.16 - Permission neither granted nor refused 334

(1) If, notwithstanding the fact that the party responsible has taken all measures required, permission is neither granted nor refused within an agreed period or, where no period has 335 been agreed, within a reasonable time from the conclusion of the contract, either party is entitled to terminate the contract.

(2) Where the permission affects some terms only, paragraph (1) does not apply if, having regard to the circumstances, it is reasonable to uphold the remaining contract even if the permission is refused. 336

Article 6.1.17 - Permission refused 337

(1) The refusal of a permission affecting the validity of the contract renders the contract void. If the refusal affects the validity of some terms only, only such terms are void if, having regard to the circumstances, it is reasonable to uphold the remaining contract. 338

(2) Where the refusal of a permission renders the performance of the contract impossible in whole or in part, the rules on non-performance apply. 339

Section 2 - Hardship 340

Article 6.2.1 - Contract to be observed 341

Where the performance of a contract becomes more onerous for one of the parties, that party is nevertheless bound to perform its obligations subject to the following provisions on hardship. 342

Article 6.2.2 - Definition of hardship 343

There is hardship where the occurrence of events fundamentally alters the equilibrium of the contract either because the cost of a party's performance has increased or because the value of the performance a party receives has diminished, and 344

(a) the events occur or become known to the disadvantaged party after the conclusion of the contract; 345

(b) the events could not reasonably have been taken into account by the disadvantaged party at the time of the conclusion of the contract; 346

(c) the events are beyond the control of the disadvantaged party; and 347

(d) the risk of the events was not assumed by the disadvantaged party. 348

Article 6.2.3 - Effects of hardship 349

(1) In case of hardship the disadvantaged party is entitled to request renegotiations. The request shall be made without undue delay and shall indicate the grounds on which it is based. 350

(2) The request for renegotiation does not in itself entitle the disadvantaged party to withhold performance. 351

- (3) Upon failure to reach agreement within a reasonable time either party may resort to the court. 352
- (4) If the court finds hardship it may, if reasonable, 353
- (a) terminate the contract at a date and on terms to be fixed, or 354
- (b) adapt the contract with a view to restoring its equilibrium. 355

Chapter 7 - Non-Performance 356

Section 1 - Non-Performance in general 357

Article 7.1.1 - Non-performance defined 358

Non-performance is failure by a party to perform any of its obligations under the contract, including defective performance or late performance. 359

Article 7.1.2 - Interference by the other party 360

A party may not rely on the non-performance of the other party to the extent that such non-performance was caused by the first party's act or omission or by another event as to which the first party bears the risk. 361

Article 7.1.3 - Withholding performance 362

- (1) Where the parties are to perform simultaneously, either party may withhold performance until the other party tenders its performance. 363
- (2) Where the parties are to perform consecutively, the party that is to perform later may withhold its performance until the first party has performed. 364

Article 7.1.4 - Cure by non-performing party 365

- (1) The non-performing party may, at its own expense, cure any non-performance, provided that 366
- (a) without undue delay, it gives notice indicating the proposed manner and timing of the cure; 367
- (b) cure is appropriate in the circumstances; 368
- (c) the aggrieved party has no legitimate interest in refusing cure; and 369
- (d) cure is effected promptly. 370
- (2) The right to cure is not precluded by notice of termination. 371
- (3) Upon effective notice of cure, rights of the aggrieved party that are inconsistent with 372

the non-performing party's performance are suspended until the time for cure has expired.

(4) The aggrieved party may withhold performance pending cure. 373

(5) Notwithstanding cure, the aggrieved party retains the right to claim damages for delay as well as for any harm caused or not prevented by the cure. 374

Article 7.1.5 - Additional period for performance 375

(1) In a case of non-performance the aggrieved party may by notice to the other party allow an additional period of time for performance. 376

(2) During the additional period the aggrieved party may withhold performance of its own reciprocal obligations and may claim damages but may not resort to any other remedy. If it receives notice from the other party that the latter will not perform within that period, or if upon expiry of that period due performance has not been made, the aggrieved party may resort to any of the remedies that may be available under this Chapter. 377

(3) Where in a case of delay in performance which is not fundamental the aggrieved party has given notice allowing an additional period of time of reasonable length, it may terminate the contract at the end of that period. If the additional period allowed is not of reasonable length it shall be extended to a reasonable length. The aggrieved party may in its notice provide that if the other party fails to perform within the period allowed by the notice the contract shall automatically terminate. 378

(4) Paragraph (3) does not apply where the obligation which has not been performed is only a minor part of the contractual obligation of the non-performing party. 379

Article 7.1.6 - Exemption clauses 380

A clause which limits or excludes one party's liability for non-performance or which permits one party to render performance substantially different from what the other party reasonably expected may not be invoked if it would be grossly unfair to do so, having regard to the purpose of the contract. 381

Article 7.1.7 - Force majeure 382

(1) Non-performance by a party is excused if that party proves that the non-performance was due to an impediment beyond its control and that it could not reasonably be expected to have taken the impediment into account at the time of the conclusion of the contract or to have avoided or overcome it or its consequences. 383

(2) When the impediment is only temporary, the excuse shall have effect for such period as is reasonable having regard to the effect of the impediment on the performance of the contract. 384

(3) The party who fails to perform must give notice to the other party of the impediment and its effect on its ability to perform. If the notice is not received by the other party 385 within a reasonable time after the party who fails to perform knew or ought to have known of the impediment, it is liable for damages resulting from such non-receipt.

(4) Nothing in this article prevents a party from exercising a right to terminate the contract or to withhold performance or request interest on money due. 386

Section 2 - Right to Performance 387

Article 7.2.1 - Performance of monetary obligation 388

Where a party who is obliged to pay money does not do so, the other party may require payment. 389

Article 7.2.2 - Performance of non-monetary obligation 390

Where a party who owes an obligation other than one to pay money does not perform, the other party may require performance, unless 391

(a) performance is impossible in law or in fact; 392

(b) performance or, where relevant, enforcement is unreasonably burdensome or expensive; 393

(c) the party entitled to performance may reasonably obtain performance from another source; 394

(d) performance is of an exclusively personal character; or 395

(e) the party entitled to performance does not require performance within a reasonable time after it has, or ought to have, become aware of the non-performance. 396

Article 7.2.3 - Repair and replacement of defective performance 397

The right to performance includes in appropriate cases the right to require repair, replacement, or other cure of defective performance. The provisions of Articles 7.2.1 and 7.2.2 apply accordingly. 398

Article 7.2.4 - Judicial penalty 399

(1) Where the court orders a party to perform, it may also direct that this party pay a penalty if it does not comply with the order. 400

(2) The penalty shall be paid to the aggrieved party unless mandatory provisions of the law of the forum provide otherwise. Payment of the penalty to the aggrieved party does not exclude any claim for damages. 401

Article 7.2.5 - Change of remedy 402

(1) An aggrieved party who has required performance of a non-monetary obligation and who has not received performance within a period fixed or otherwise within a reasonable period of time may invoke any other remedy. 403

(2) Where the decision of a court for performance of a non-monetary obligation cannot be enforced, the aggrieved party may invoke any other remedy. 404

Section 3 - Termination 405

Article 7.3.1 - Right to terminate the contract 406

(1) A party may terminate the contract where the failure of the other party to perform an obligation under the contract amounts to a fundamental non-performance. 407

(2) In determining whether a failure to perform an obligation amounts to a fundamental non-performance regard shall be had, in particular, to whether 408

(a) the non-performance substantially deprives the aggrieved party of what it was entitled to expect under the contract unless the other party did not foresee and could not reasonably have foreseen such result; 409

(b) strict compliance with the obligation which has not been performed is of essence under the contract; 410

(c) the non-performance is intentional or reckless; 411

(d) the non-performance gives the aggrieved party reason to believe that it cannot rely on the other party's future performance; 412

(e) the non-performing party will suffer disproportionate loss as a result of the preparation or performance if the contract is terminated. 413

(3) In the case of delay the aggrieved party may also terminate the contract if the other party fails to perform before the time allowed it under Article 7.1.5 has expired. 414

Article 7.3.2 - Notice of termination 415

(1) The right of a party to terminate the contract is exercised by notice to the other party. 416

(2) If performance has been offered late or otherwise does not conform to the contract the aggrieved party will lose its right to terminate the contract unless it gives notice to the other party within a reasonable time after it has or ought to have become aware of the offer or of the non-conforming performance. 417

Article 7.3.3 - Anticipatory non-performance 418

Where prior to the date for performance by one of the parties it is clear that there will 419 be a fundamental non-performance by that party, the other party may terminate the contract.

Article 7.3.4 - Adequate assurance of due performance

420

A party who reasonably believes that there will be a fundamental non-performance by the other party may demand adequate assurance of due performance and may meanwhile withhold its own performance. Where this assurance is not provided within a reasonable time the party demanding it may terminate the contract.

421

Article 7.3.5 - Effects of termination in general

422

(1) Termination of the contract releases both parties from their obligation to effect and to receive future performance.

423

(2) Termination does not preclude a claim for damages for non-performance.

424

(3) Termination does not affect any provision in the contract for the settlement of disputes or any other term of the contract which is to operate even after termination.

425

Article 7.3.6 - Restitution

426

(1) On termination of the contract either party may claim restitution of whatever it has supplied, provided that such party concurrently makes restitution of whatever it has received. If restitution in kind is not possible or appropriate allowance should be made in money whenever reasonable.

427

(2) However, if performance of the contract has extended over a period of time and the contract is divisible, such restitution can only be claimed for the period after termination has taken effect.

428

Section 4 - Damages

429

Article 7.4.1 - Right to damages

430

Any non-performance gives the aggrieved party a right to damages either exclusively or in conjunction with any other remedies except where the non-performance is excused under these Principles.

431

Article 7.4.2 - Full compensation

432

(1) The aggrieved party is entitled to full compensation for harm sustained as a result of the non-performance. Such harm includes both any loss which it suffered and any gain of which it was deprived, taking into account any gain to the aggrieved party resulting from its avoidance of cost or harm.

433

(2) Such harm may be non-pecuniary and includes, for instance, physical suffering or emotional distress. 434

Article 7.4.3 - Certainty of harm 435

(1) Compensation is due only for harm, including future harm, that is established with a reasonable degree of certainty. 436

(2) Compensation may be due for the loss of a chance in proportion to the probability of its occurrence. 437

(3) Where the amount of damages cannot be established with a sufficient degree of certainty, the assessment is at the discretion of the court. 438

Article 7.4.4 - Foreseeability of harm 439

The non-performing party is liable only for harm which it foresaw or could reasonably have foreseen at the time of the conclusion of the contract as being likely to result from its non-performance. 440

Article 7.4.5 - Proof of harm in case of replacement transaction 441

Where the aggrieved party has terminated the contract and has made a replacement transaction within a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner it may recover the difference between the contract price and the price of the replacement transaction as well as damages for any further harm. 442

Article 7.4.6 - Proof of harm by current price 443

(1) Where the aggrieved party has terminated the contract and has not made a replacement transaction but there is a current price for the performance contracted for, it may recover the difference between the contract price and the price current at the time the contract is terminated as well as damages for any further harm. 444

(2) Current price is the price generally charged for goods delivered or services rendered in comparable circumstances at the place where the contract should have been performed or, if there is no current price at that place, the current price at such other place that appears reasonable to take as a reference. 445

Article 7.4.7 - Harm due in part to aggrieved party 446

Where the harm is due in part to an act or omission of the aggrieved party or to another event as to which that party bears the risk, the amount of damages shall be reduced to the extent that these factors have contributed to the harm, having regard to the conduct of each of the parties. 447

Article 7.4.8 - Mitigation of harm

448

(1) The non-performing party is not liable for harm suffered by the aggrieved party to the extent that the harm could have been reduced by the latter party's taking reasonable steps.

449

(2) The aggrieved party is entitled to recover any expenses reasonably incurred in attempting to reduce the harm.

450

Article 7.4.9 - Interest for failure to pay money

451

(1) If a party does not pay a sum of money when it falls due the aggrieved party is entitled to interest upon that sum from the time when payment is due to the time of payment whether or not the non-payment is excused.

452

(2) The rate of interest shall be the average bank short-term lending rate to prime borrowers prevailing for the currency of payment at the place for payment, or where no such rate exists at that place, then the same rate in the State of the currency of payment. In the absence of such a rate at either place the rate of interest shall be the appropriate rate fixed by the law of the State of the currency of payment.

453

(3) The aggrieved party is entitled to additional damages if the non-payment caused it a greater harm.

454

Article 7.4.10 - Interest on damages

455

Unless otherwise agreed, interest on damages for non-performance of non-monetary obligations accrues as from the time of non-performance.

456

Article 7.4.11 - Manner of monetary redress

457

(1) Damages are to be paid in a lump sum. However, they may be payable in instalments where the nature of the harm makes this appropriate.

458

(2) Damages to be paid in instalments may be indexed.

459

Article 7.4.12 - Currency in which to assess damages

460

Damages are to be assessed either in the currency in which the monetary obligation was expressed or in the currency in which the harm was suffered, whichever is more appropriate.

461

Article 7.4.13 - Agreed payment for non-performance

462

(1) Where the contract provides that a party who does not perform is to pay a specified sum to the aggrieved party for such non-performance, the aggrieved party is entitled to that sum irrespective of its actual harm.

463

(2) However, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary the specified sum may be reduced to a reasonable amount where it is grossly excessive in relation to the harm resulting from the non-performance and to the other circumstances. 464

Chapter 8 - Set-Off 465

Article 8.1 - Conditions of set-off 466

(1) Where two parties owe each other money or other performances of the same kind, either of them (“the first party”) may set off its obligation against that of its obligee (“the other party”) if at the time of set-off, 467

(a) the first party is entitled to perform its obligation; 468

(b) the other party's obligation is ascertained as to its existence and amount and performance is due. 469

(2) If the obligations of both parties arise from the same contract, the first party may also set off its obligation against an obligation of the other party which is not ascertained as to its existence or to its amount. 470

Article 8.2 - Foreign currency set-off 471

Where the obligations are to pay money in different currencies, the right of set-off may be exercised, provided that both currencies are freely convertible and the parties have not agreed that the first party shall pay only in a specified currency. 472

Article 8.3 - Set-off by notice 473

The right of set-off is exercised by notice to the other party. 474

Article 8.4 - Content of notice 475

(1) The notice must specify the obligations to which it relates. 476

(2) If the notice does not specify the obligation against which set-off is exercised, the other party may, within a reasonable time, declare to the first party the obligation to which set-off relates. If no such declaration is made, the set-off will relate to all the obligations proportionally. 477

Article 8.5 - Effect of set-off 478

(1) Set-off discharges the obligations. 479

(2) If obligations differ in amount, set-off discharges the obligations up to the amount of the lesser obligation. 480

(3) Set-off takes effect as from the time of notice. 481

Chapter 9 - Assignment of Rights, Transfer of Obligations, Assignment of Contracts 482

Section 1 - Assignment of Rights 483

Article 9.1.1 - Definitions 484

“Assignment of a right” means the transfer by agreement from one person (the “assignor”) to another person (the “assignee”), including transfer by way of security, of the assignor's right to payment of a monetary sum or other performance from a third person (“the obligor”). 485

Article 9.1.2 - Exclusions 486

This Section does not apply to transfers made under the special rules governing the transfers: 487

(a) of instruments such as negotiable instruments, documents of title or financial instruments, or 488

(b) of rights in the course of transferring a business. 489

Article 9.1.3 - Assignability of non-monetary rights 490

A right to non-monetary performance may be assigned only if the assignment does not render the obligation significantly more burdensome. 491

Article 9.1.4 - Partial assignment 492

(1) A right to the payment of a monetary sum may be assigned partially. 493

(2) A right to other performance may be assigned partially only if it is divisible, and the assignment does not render the obligation significantly more burdensome. 494

Article 9.1.5 - Future rights 495

A future right is deemed to be transferred at the time of the agreement, provided the right, when it comes into existence, can be identified as the right to which the assignment relates. 496

Article 9.1.6 - Rights assigned without individual specification 497

A number of rights may be assigned without individual specification, provided such rights can be identified as rights to which the assignment relates at the time of the assignment or when they come into existence. 498

Article 9.1.7 - Agreement between assignor and assignee sufficient 499

(1) A right is assigned by mere agreement between the assignor and the assignee, without notice to the obligor. 500

(2) The consent of the obligor is not required unless the obligation in the circumstances is of an essentially personal character. 501

Article 9.1.8 - Obligor's additional costs 502

The obligor has a right to be compensated by the assignor or the assignee for any additional costs caused by the assignment. 503

Article 9.1.9 - Non-assignment clauses 504

(1) The assignment of a right to the payment of a monetary sum is effective notwithstanding an agreement between the assignor and the obligor limiting or prohibiting such an assignment. However, the assignor may be liable to the obligor for breach of contract. 505

(2) The assignment of a right to other performance is ineffective if it is contrary to an agreement between the assignor and the obligor limiting or prohibiting the assignment. Nevertheless, the assignment is effective if the assignee, at the time of the assignment, neither knew nor ought to have known of the agreement. The assignor may then be liable to the obligor for breach of contract. 506

Article 9.1.10 - Notice to the obligor 507

(1) Until the obligor receives a notice of the assignment from either the assignor or the assignee, it is discharged by paying the assignor. 508

(2) After the obligor receives such a notice, it is discharged only by paying the assignee. 509

Article 9.1.11 - Successive assignments 510

If the same right has been assigned by the same assignor to two or more successive assignees, the obligor is discharged by paying according to the order in which the notices were received. 511

Article 9.1.12 - Adequate proof of assignment 512

(1) If notice of the assignment is given by the assignee, the obligor may request the assignee to provide within a reasonable time adequate proof that the assignment has been made. 513

- (2) Until adequate proof is provided, the obligor may withhold payment. 514
- (3) Unless adequate proof is provided, notice is not effective. 515
- (4) Adequate proof includes, but is not limited to, any writing emanating from the assignor and indicating that the assignment has taken place. 516

Article 9.1.13 - Defences and rights of set-off 517

- (1) The obligor may assert against the assignee all defences that the obligor could assert against the assignor. 518
- (2) The obligor may exercise against the assignee any right of set-off available to the obligor against the assignor up to the time notice of assignment was received. 519

Article 9.1.14 - Rights related to the right assigned 520

- The assignment of a right transfers to the assignee: 521
- (a) all the assignor's rights to payment or other performance under the contract in respect of the right assigned, and 522
- (b) all rights securing performance of the right assigned. 523

Article 9.1.15 - Undertakings of the assignor 524

- The assignor undertakes towards the assignee, except as otherwise disclosed to the assignee, that: 525
- (a) the assigned right exists at the time of the assignment, unless the right is a future right; 526
- (b) the assignor is entitled to assign the right; 527
- (c) the right has not been previously assigned to another assignee, and it is free from any right or claim from a third party; 528
- (d) the obligor does not have any defences; 529
- (e) neither the obligor nor the assignor has given notice of set-off concerning the assigned right and will not give any such notice; 530
- (f) the assignor will reimburse the assignee for any payment received from the obligor before notice of the assignment was given. 531

Section 2 - Transfer of Obligations 532

Article 9.2.1 - Modes of transfer 533

An obligation to pay money or render other performance may be transferred from one person (the “original obligor”) to another person (the “new obligor”) either 534

- a) by an agreement between the original obligor and the new obligor subject to Article 9.2.3, or 535
- b) by an agreement between the obligee and the new obligor, by which the new obligor assumes the obligation. 536

Article 9.2.2 - Exclusion 537

This Section does not apply to transfers of obligations made under the special rules governing transfers of obligations in the course of transferring a business. 538

Article 9.2.3 - Requirement of obligee's consent to transfer 539

The transfer of an obligation by an agreement between the original obligor and the new obligor requires the consent of the obligee. 540

Article 9.2.4 - Advance consent of obligee 541

- (1) The obligee may give its consent in advance. 542
- (2) If the obligee has given its consent in advance, the transfer of the obligation becomes effective when a notice of the transfer is given to the obligee or when the obligee acknowledges it. 543

Article 9.2.5 - Discharge of original obligor 544

- (1) The obligee may discharge the original obligor. 545
- (2) The obligee may also retain the original obligor as an obligor in case the new obligor does not perform properly. 546
- (3) Otherwise the original obligor and the new obligor are jointly and severally liable. 547

Article 9.2.6 - Third party performance 548

- (1) Without the obligee's consent, the obligor may contract with another person that this person will perform the obligation in place of the obligor, unless the obligation in the circumstances has an essentially personal character. 549
- (2) The obligee retains its claim against the obligor. 550

Article 9.2.7 - Defences and rights of set-off 551

- (1) The new obligor may assert against the obligee all defences which the original obligor could assert against the obligee. 552
- (2) The new obligor may not exercise against the obligee any right of set-off available to the original obligor against the obligee. 553

Article 9.2.8 - Rights related to the obligation transferred 554

(1) The obligee may assert against the new obligor all its rights to payment or other performance under the contract in respect of the obligation transferred. 555

(2) If the original obligor is discharged under Article 9.2.5(1), a security granted by any person other than the new obligor for the performance of the obligation is discharged, unless that other person agrees that it should continue to be available to the obligee. 556

(3) Discharge of the original obligor also extends to any security of the original obligor given to the obligee for the performance of the obligation, unless the security is over an asset which is transferred as part of a transaction between the original obligor and the new obligor. 557

Section 3 - Assignment of Contracts 558

Article 9.3.1 - Definitions 559

“Assignment of a contract” means the transfer by agreement from one person (the “assignor”) to another person (the “assignee”) of the assignor's rights and obligations arising out of a contract with another person (the “other party”). 560

Article 9.3.2 - Exclusion 561

This Section does not apply to the assignment of contracts made under the special rules governing transfers of contracts in the course of transferring a business. 562

Article 9.3.3 - Requirement of consent of the other party 563

The assignment of a contract requires the consent of the other party. 564

Article 9.3.4 - Advance consent of the other party 565

(1) The other party may give its consent in advance. 566

(2) If the other party has given its consent in advance, the assignment of the contract becomes effective when a notice of the assignment is given to the other party or when the other party acknowledges it. 567

Article 9.3.5 - Discharge of the assignor 568

(1) The other party may discharge the assignor. 569

(2) The other party may also retain the assignor as an obligor in case the assignee does not perform properly. 570

(3) Otherwise the assignor and the assignee are jointly and severally liable. 571

Article 9.3.6 - Defences and rights of set-off 572

(1) To the extent that the assignment of a contract involves an assignment of rights, Article 9.1.13 applies accordingly. 573

(2) To the extent that the assignment of a contract involves a transfer of obligations, Article 9.2.7 applies accordingly. 574

Article 9.3.7 - Rights transferred with the contract 575

(1) To the extent that the assignment of a contract involves an assignment of rights, Article 9.1.14 applies accordingly. 576

(2) To the extent that the assignment of a contract involves a transfer of obligations, Article 9.2.8 applies accordingly. 577

Chapter 10 - Limitation Periods 578

Article 10.1 - Scope of the Chapter 579

(1) The exercise of rights governed by these Principles is barred by the expiration of a period of time, referred to as “limitation period”, according to the rules of this Chapter. 580

(2) This Chapter does not govern the time within which one party is required under these Principles, as a condition for the acquisition or exercise of its right, to give notice to the other party or to perform any act other than the institution of legal proceedings. 581

Article 10.2 - Limitation periods 582

(1) The general limitation period is three years beginning on the day after the day the obligee knows or ought to know the facts as a result of which the obligee's right can be exercised. 583

(2) In any event, the maximum limitation period is ten years beginning on the day after the day the right can be exercised. 584

Article 10.3 - Modification of limitation periods by the parties 585

(1) The parties may modify the limitation periods. 586

(2) However they may not 587

(a) shorten the general limitation period to less than one year; 588

(b) shorten the maximum limitation period to less than four years; 589

(c) extend the maximum limitation period to more than fifteen years. 590

Article 10.4 - New limitation period by acknowledgement 591

(1) Where the obligor before the expiration of the general limitation period acknowledges the right of the obligee, a new general limitation period begins on the day after the day of the acknowledgement. 592

(2) The maximum limitation period does not begin to run again, but may be exceeded by the beginning of a new general limitation period under Art. 10.2(1). 593

Article 10.5 - Suspension by judicial proceedings 594

(1) The running of the limitation period is suspended 595

(a) when the obligee performs any act, by commencing judicial proceedings or in judicial proceedings already instituted, that is recognised by the law of the court as asserting the obligee's right against the obligor; 596

(b) in the case of the obligor's insolvency when the obligee has asserted its rights in the insolvency proceedings; or 597

(c) in the case of proceedings for dissolution of the entity which is the obligor when the obligee has asserted its rights in the dissolution proceedings. 598

(2) Suspension lasts until a final decision has been issued or until the proceedings have been otherwise terminated. 599

Article 10.6 - Suspension by arbitral proceedings 600

(1) The running of the limitation period is suspended when the obligee performs any act, by commencing arbitral proceedings or in arbitral proceedings already instituted, that is recognised by the law of the arbitral tribunal as asserting the obligee's right against the obligor. In the absence of regulations for arbitral proceedings or provisions determining the exact date of the commencement of arbitral proceedings, the proceedings are deemed to commence on the date on which a request that the right in dispute should be adjudicated reaches the obligor. 601

(2) Suspension lasts until a binding decision has been issued or until the proceedings have been otherwise terminated. 602

Article 10.7 - Alternative dispute resolution 603

The provisions of Articles 10.5 and 10.6 apply with appropriate modifications to other proceedings whereby the parties request a third person to assist them in their attempt to reach an amicable settlement of their dispute. 604

Article 10.8 - Suspension in case of force majeure, death or incapacity 605

(1) Where the obligee has been prevented by an impediment that is beyond its control 606 and that it could neither avoid nor overcome, from causing a limitation period to cease to run under the preceding articles, the general limitation period is suspended so as not to expire before one year after the relevant impediment has ceased to exist.

(2) Where the impediment consists of the incapacity or death of the obligee or obligor, suspension ceases when a representative for the incapacitated or deceased party or its estate has been appointed or a successor has inherited the respective party's position. The additional one-year period under paragraph (1) applies accordingly. 607

Article 10.9 - The effects of expiration of limitation period 608

(1) The expiration of the limitation period does not extinguish the right. 609

(2) For the expiration of the limitation period to have effect, the obligor must assert it as a defence. 610

(3) A right may still be relied on as a defence even though the expiration of the limitation period for that right has been asserted. 611

Article 10.10 - Right of set-off 612

The obligee may exercise the right of set-off until the obligor has asserted the expiration of the limitation period. 613

Article 10.11 - Restitution 614

Where there has been performance in order to discharge an obligation, there is no right of restitution merely because the limitation period has expired. 615
