“A Life Worth Living – a University Career and More”

A PluriCourts Publish and Flourish workshop in collaboration with the Norwegian Centre for Human Rights and the Gender Equality and Diversity Committee at the Faculty of Law

7 June 2016

Location: the Norwegian Centre for Human Rights

Seminar Programme:

9:00 – 9:15 Welcome by Inga Bostad, Director of the Norwegian Centre for Human Rights and Andreas Føllesdal, Co-Director at PluriCourts

9:15 – 9:30 Ragnhild Hennum, Pro-Rector and Professor of the Department of Public and International Law
“Labor and Academia in the View of the Work Environment Survey at the Faculty of Law”

9:30 – 9:45 Dag Michalsen, Dean of the Faculty of Law
"Reflections on the Work Environment Survey - Challenges and Opportunities for the Faculty of Law"

9:45 – 10:00 Vibeke Blaker Strand, Associate Professor at the Norwegian Centre for Human Rights
“Challenges to the Faculty and the University”

10:00 – 10:15 Questions and Comments

10:15 – 10:30 Coffee break

10:30 – 12:00 Panel chaired by Inga Bostad and Andreas Føllesdal

Panelists:

- Trine Rogg Korsvik, Researcher at the Norwegian Centre for Human Rights
- Silje Aambø Langvatn, Postdoctoral Fellow at PluriCourts
- Heidi Mork Lomell, Head of Department of the Department of Criminology and Sociology of Law
- Matthew William Saul, Postdoctoral Fellow at PluriCourts
- Anne Julie Semb, Professor at the Department for Political Science

12:00 – 13:00 Lunch