“A Life Worth Living – a University Career and More”

Seminar Programme

9:00 – 9:15 Welcome by Andreas Føllesdal, Professor at PluriCourts and Inga Bostad, Director of the Norwegian Centre for Human Rights

9:15 – 9:40 Ragnhild Hennum, Pro-Rector and Professor of the Department of Public and International Law

“Labor and academia in the view of the work environment survey at the Faculty of Law”

9:40 – 10:00 Dag Michalsen, Dean at the Faculty of Law

“The faculty aims for a good work environment and the employees possibility to manage the balance between academic career and general expectations in the working life”

10:00 – 10:15 Vibeke Blaker Strand, Associate Professor at the Norwegian Centre for Human Rights

“Challenges to the faculty and the university”

10:15 – 10:30 Coffee break

10:30 – 12:00 Panel chaired by Andreas Føllesdal and Inga Bostad

Panelists:

Trine Rogg Korsvik, Researcher at the Norwegian Centre for Human Rights

Silje Aambo Langvatn, Postdoctoral Fellow at PluriCourts

Heidi Lomell, Head of Department of the Department of Criminology and Sociology of Law

Matthew William Saul, Postdoctoral Fellow at PluriCourts

Anne Julie Semb, Professor at the Department for Political Science

12:00 – 13:00 Lunch