

Oslo
15.11.2021

Dear student,

We are very pleased that you have chosen to study at the University of Oslo, Faculty of Law.

We are writing to provide some updates on semesterstart and our plans to welcome exchange students to the Faculty of Law. We plan for a normal physical taught semester in the spring semester 2022, but with a digital recording or zoom option, and on-line home exams, due to the unpredictable pandemic situation.

Most law courses will begin from the week starting 24 January. The websites and timetables for courses will be updated from the end of November, and you may start to register on-line for courses from 1 December.

Information about the academic program offered to international students is available on the following address: <http://www.jus.uio.no/english/academics/>

We hope that you are all well during these challenging times, and we look forward to welcoming you to the Faculty of Law. If you have any questions, you are welcome to contact us.

Kind regards,

Elisabeth Reien
Exchange Coordinator, Faculty of Law

Semesterstart and orientation week/meetings

The orientation week for all new international students starts January 10th and further information will be posted in this link in the nearest future. Students in ELSA (The European Law Students Association) are in the process of planning the orientation week starting from 10 January for the new law students, we will send you a detailed programme in December.

The Faculty of Law welcomes you to an orientation meeting Tuesday 18th of January, 10:00 (Aud 4, Domus Biblioteca). Important information on studying at the Faculty of Law will be given at this meeting. Lectures start in week 4 (from 24nd of January) and examinations take place in May/(June.) We will also establish a digital class room for all exchange students studying at the Faculty in the spring semester 2022, an e-mail from this classroom will soon be sent to you.

Introduction seminar for law students 21 January on zoom (10.00-12.00)

This is an open seminar for law students (not compulsory). The objective of the seminar is to introduce international and Norwegian students to legal systems. The seminar is held by Professor Alla Pozdnakova and is highly recommended (live on zoom in Canvas)

A message regarding the canvas class room will be sent to you after 1 December.

Courses,(level, registration) and Learning Agreement

Law students on the Erasmus programme/bilateral agreements and Nord-Plus students who have completed two years of law studies or more are welcome to register for many of our law courses at master's level. Please check with your exchange coordinator at your home university whether you are supposed to register for courses at bachelor's or master's level. (A number of courses are available at master's level only, see the list)

<https://www.uio.no/english/studies/courses/law/jus/?filter.semester=v22>

You are expected to choose three full courses in one semester (30 ECTS). The Faculty does reserve the right to cancel options if the number of students wishing to follow the course is insufficient. The semester webpages will be updated from the end of November for the spring semester 2022. Studentweb opens 1 December for on-line course registration!

If you register early on-line you may have a better chance of being admitted to the courses you wish to take. Criminology courses and courses offered at other faculties have usually limited places, so we advise you to register/check quickly to have a better opportunity to be admitted to the course. Please note also that a letter of motivation must be submitted on-line for JUS5671/1671 about mid-January, for further details please read carefully the website. The deadline for final registration for courses and exams for the spring semester 2022 (done online in Studentweb) is February 1st. (pre-registration in nomination web is not binding; you are free to make changes in most courses before 1 February)

In some cases you will need to be registered manually for courses, you may then contact elisabeth.reien@jus.uio.no

Learning agreement

Please check with your home university if they will use the new digital system for Learning agreements "OLA" or the paper-based L.A, we will then we will confirm your learning agreement in the Erasmus Dashboard. If paper (PDF)- based, check which documents you should bring/send and we will then sign them.

You may have your paper-based(PDF) learning agreement signed by sending it to the Info Centre at the Faculty of law: info@jus.uio.no or to elisabeth.reien@jus.uio.no. Arrival/departure forms will be signed at the Info-center, located in Domus Juridica.
