Chapter 1 - General Provisions

Article 1

This Law is hereby formulated in accordance with the Constitution in order to protect the legitimate rights and interests of laborers, readjust labor relationship, establish and safeguard the labor system suiting the socialist market economy, and promote economic development and social progress.

Article 2

This Law applies to enterprises, individually-owned economic organizations (hereinafter referred to as the employer) and laborers who form a labor relationship with them within the boundary of the Peoples Republic of China. State departments, institutional organizations and social groups and laborers who form a labor relationship with them shall follow this Law.

Article 3

Laborers have the right to be employed on an equal basis, choose occupations, obtain remunerations for labor, take rests, have holidays and leaves, receive labor safety and sanitation protection, get training in professional skills, enjoy social insurance and welfare treatment, and submit applications for settlement of labor disputes, and other labor rights stipulated by law.

Laborers shall fulfill their tasks of labor, improve their professional skills, follow rules on labor safety and sanitation, observe labor discipline and professional ethics.

Article 4

The employer shall establish and perfect rules and regulations in accordance with law and guarantee that laborers enjoy labor right and fulfill labor obligations.

Article 5

The State shall take various measures to promote employment, develop vocational education, formulate labor standards, regulate social incomes, perfect social insurance, coordinate labor relationships, and gradually raise the living level of laborers.

Article 6

The State shall advocate laborers participation in social voluntary labor, labor competition, and activities of forwarding rational proposals; encourage and protect laborers in scientific research, technical renovation, and invention; and commend and award labor models and advanced workers.

Article 7

Laborers shall have the right to participate in and organize trade unions in accordance with law.
Trade unions shall represent and safeguard the legitimate rights and interests of laborers, and stage activities independently in accordance with law.

Article 8

Laborers shall take part in democratic management through workers congress, workers representative assembly, or any other forms in accordance with law, or consult with the employer on an equal footing about protection of the legitimate rights and interests of laborers.

Article 9

The labor management department under the State Council shall take charge of the management of labor of the whole country. Local peoples governments above the county level shall take charge of the management of labor in areas under their jurisdiction.

Chapter 2 - Promotion of Employment

Article 10

The State shall create employment conditions and expand employment opportunities through promotion of economic and social development. The State shall encourage enterprises, institutional organizations, and social groups to start industries or expand businesses within the scope allowed by stipulations of laws and administrative decrees for the purpose of increasing employment.

The State shall support laborers to organize and employ themselves on a voluntary basis and to get employed in individual businesses.

Article 11

Local peoples governments at various levels shall take measures to develop various kinds of job agencies and provide employment services.

Article 12

Laborers shall not be discriminated against in employment due to their nationality, race, sex, or religious belief.

Article 13

Women shall enjoy equal rights as men in employment. Sex shall not be used as a pretext for excluding women from employment during recruitment of workers unless the types of work or posts for which workers are being recruited are not suitable for women according to State regulations. Nor shall the standards of recruitment be raised when it comes to women.

Article 14

Any special stipulations in laws and regulations about the employment of the disabled, minority people, and demobilized soldiers shall be observed.
Article 15

The employer shall be banned from recruiting juveniles under the age of 16.

Art, sports and special-skill units that plan to recruit juveniles under the age of 16 shall go through examination and approval procedures according to relevant State regulations and guarantee the right of the employed to receive compulsory education.

Chapter 3 - Labor Contracts and Collective Contracts

Article 16

Labor contracts are agreements reached between laborers and the employer to establish labor relationships and specify the rights, interests and obligations of each party.

Labor contracts shall be concluded if labor relationships are to be established.

Article 17

Conclusion and alteration of labor contracts shall follow the principle of equality, voluntariness, and agreement through consultation. They shall not run counter to stipulations in laws or administrative decrees.

Labor contracts shall become legally binding once they are concluded in accordance with law. The parties involved shall fulfill obligations stipulated in labor contracts.

Article 18

The following labor contracts shall be invalid;

(1) Labor contracts concluded against laws or administrative decrees;

(2) Labor contracts concluded through cheating, threat, or any other means.

Invalid labor contracts shall not be legally binding from the very beginning of their conclusion. If a labor contract is confirmed as being partially invalid, the other parts shall be valid if the parts that are invalid do not affect the validity of these other parts.

The invalidity of a labor contract shall be confirmed by a labor dispute arbitration committee or a peoples court.

Article 19

Labor contracts shall be concluded in written form and contain the following clauses:

(1) Time limit of the labor contract;

(2) Content of work;

(3) Labor protection and labor conditions;

(4) Labor remunerations;

(5) Labor disciplines;

(6) Conditions for the termination of the labor contract;

(7) Liabilities for violations of the labor contract.

Apart from the necessary clauses specified in the preceding clause, the parties involved can include in their labor contracts other contents agreed upon by them through consultation.
Article 20

The time limits of labor contracts shall be divided into fixed and flexible time limits and time limits for the completion of certain amount of work.

Labor contracts with flexible time limits shall be concluded between the laborers and the employer if the former request for the conclusion of labor contracts with flexible time limits after working continuously with the employer for more than 10 years and with agreement between both of the parties involved to prolong their contracts.

Article 21

Probation periods can be agreed upon in labor contracts. These probation periods shall not, however, exceed six months at the longest.

Article 22

The parties involved in a labor contract can reach agreements in their labor contracts on matters concerning the keeping of the commercial secrets of the employer.

Article 23

Labor contracts shall terminate upon the expiration of their time limits or the occurrence of the conditions agreed upon in labor contracts by the parties involved for terminating these contracts.

Article 24

Labor contracts can be revoked with agreement reached between the parties involved through consultation.

Article 25

The employer can revoke labor contracts should any one of the following cases occur with its laborers:

(1) When they are proved during probation periods to be unqualified for employment;

(2) When they seriously violate labor disciplines or the rules or regulations of the employer;

(3) When they cause great losses to the employer due to serious dereliction of duties or engagement in malpractice for selfish ends;

(4) When they are brought to hold criminal responsibilities in accordance with law.

Article 26

The employer can revoke labor contracts should any one of the following cases occur, with its laborers to be notified, in written form, of such revocation in 30 days advance:

(1) The laborers can neither take up their original jobs nor any other kinds of new jobs assigned by the employer after completion of medical treatment for their illnesses or injuries not suffered during work;

(2) The laborers are incompetent at their jobs and remain as so even after training or after readjusting the work posts;
(3) No agreements on a alteration of labor contracts can be reached through consultation between and by the parties involved when major changes taking place in the objective conditions serving as the basis of the conclusion of these contracts prevent them being implemented.

Article 27

In case it becomes a must for the employer to cut down the number of workforce during the period of legal consolidation when it comes to the brink of bankruptcy or when it runs deep into difficulties in business, the employer shall explain the situation to its trade union or all of its employees 30 days in advance, solicit opinions from its trade union or the employees, and report to the labor administrative department before it makes such cuts.

If the employer cuts its staff according to stipulations in this Article and then seeks recruits within six months, it shall first recruit those that have been cut.

Article 28

The employer shall make economic compensations in accordance with relevant State regulations if it revokes labor contracts according to stipulations in Article 24, Article 26 and Article 27 of this Law.

Article 29

The employer shall not revoke labor contracts in accordance with stipulations in Article 26 and Article 27 of this Law should any one of the following cases occur with its laborers:

(1) Those who are confirmed to have totally or partially lost their labor ability due to occupational diseases or work-related injuries;
(2) Those who are receiving treatment for their diseases or injuries during prescribed period of time;
(3) Women employees during pregnancy, puerperium,* and nursing periods;
(4) Others cases stipulated by laws and administrative decrees.

Article 30

The trade union shall have the right to air its opinions if it regards as inappropriate the revocation of a labor contract by the employer. If the employer violates laws, regulations or labor contracts, its trade union shall have the right to ask for handling the case anew. If laborers apply for arbitration or raise lawsuits, the trade union shall render support and help in accordance with law.

Article 31

Laborers planning to revoke labor contracts shall give a written notice to their employer in 30 days advance.

Article 32

Laborers can notify, at any time, their employer of their decision to revoke labor contracts in any one of the following cases:

(1) During their periods of probation;
(2) If they are forced to work by the employer through means of violence, threat or deprival of personal freedom in violation of law;
(3) Failure on the part of the employer to pay labor remunerations or to provide labor conditions as agreed upon in labor contracts.

Article 33

The employees of an enterprise as one party may conclude a collective contract with the enterprise as another party on labor remunerations, work hours, rests and leaves, labor safety and sanitation, insurance, welfare treatment, and other matters.

The draft collective contract shall be submitted to the workers representative assembly or all the employees for discussion and passage.

Collective contracts shall be signed by and between the trade union on behalf of the employees and the employer. In an enterprise that has not yet set up a trade union, such contracts shall be signed by and between representatives recommended by workers and the enterprise.

Article 34

Labor contracts shall be reported to labor administrative departments after their conclusion. Labor contracts shall take effect automatically if no objections are raised by these labor administrative departments within 15 days after they are received.

Article 35

Labor contracts concluded in accordance with law shall be binding on both the enterprise and all of its employees. The standards on labor conditions and labor payments agreed upon in labor contracts concluded between individual laborers and their enterprises shall not be lower than those stipulated in collective contracts.

Chapter 4 - Working Hours, Rests, and Leaves

Article 36

The State shall practice a working hour system wherein laborers shall work for no more than eight hours a day and no more than 44 hours a week on the average.

Article 37

In case of laborers working on the basis of piecework, the employer shall rationally fix quotas of work and standards of piecework remuneration in accordance with the working hour system stipulated in Article 36 of this Law.

Article 38

The employer shall guarantee that its laborers have at least one day off a week.

Article 39

If an enterprise can not follow the stipulations in Article 36 and Article 38 of this Law due to special characteristics of its production, it may follow other rules on work and rest with the approval by labor administrative departments.

Article 40

The employer shall arrange rests for laborers in accordance with law during the following holidays:

(1) The New Years Day;
(2) The Spring Festival;
(3) The International Labor Day;
(4) The National Day;
(5) Other holidays stipulated by laws and regulations.

Article 41

The employer can prolong work hours due to needs of production or businesses after consultation with its trade union and laborers. The work hours to be prolonged, in general, shall be no longer than one hour a day, or no more than three hours a day if such prolonging is called for due to special reasons and under the condition that the physical health of laborers is guaranteed. The work time to be prolonged shall not exceed, however, 36 hours a month.

Article 42

The prolonging of work hours shall not be subject to restrictions of stipulations of Article 41 of this Law in any one of the following cases:

1. Need for emergency treatment during occurrence of natural disasters, accidents or other reasons that threaten the life, health or property safety of laborers;
2. Need for timely rush-repair of production equipment, transportation lines or public facilities that have gone out of order and as a result affect production and public interests;
3. Other cases stipulated in laws and administrative decrees.

Article 43

The employer shall not prolong the work hours of laborers in violation of the stipulations of this Law.

Article 44

The employer shall pay laborers more wage remunerations than those for normal work according to the following standards in any one of the following cases:

1. Wage payments to laborers no less than 150 per cent of their wages if the laborers are asked to work longer hours;
2. Wage payments to laborers no less than 200 per cent of their wages if no rest can be arranged afterwards for the laborers asked to work on days of rest;
3. Wage payments to laborers no less than 300 per cent of their wages if the laborers are asked to work on legal holidays.

Article 45

The State follows the system of annual leaves with pay. Laborers shall be entitled to annual leaves with pay after working for more than one year continuously. Specific rules on this shall be worked out by the State Council.

Chapter 5 - Wages

Article 46

Distribution of wages shall follow the principle of distribution according to work and equal pay for equal work.
The level of wages shall be raised gradually on the basis of economic development. The State shall exercise macro regulation and control over total payrolls.

Article 47

The employer shall fix its form of wage distribution and wage level on its own and in accordance with this Law according to the characteristics of its production and businesses and economic efficiency.

Article 48

The State shall implement a system of guaranteed minimum wages. Specific standards on minimum wages shall be stipulated by provincial, autonomous regional and municipal peoples governments and reported to the State Council for registration.

The employer shall pay laborers wages no lower than local standards on minimum wages.

Article 49

Standards on minimum wages shall be fixed and readjusted with comprehensive reference to the following factors:

1. The lowest living costs of laborers themselves and the number of family members they support;
2. Average wage level of the society as a whole;
3. Productivity;
4. Situation of employment;
5. Differences between regions in their levels of economic development.

Article 50

Wages shall be paid to laborers themselves in the form of currency on a monthly basis. The wages payable to laborers shall not be deducted or delayed without reason.

Article 51

The employer shall pay wages to laborers in accordance with law when they have legal holidays, take leaves during periods of marriage or mourning, and participate in social activities in accordance with law.

Chapter 6 - Labor Safety and Sanitation

Article 52

The employer shall establish and perfect its system for labor safety and sanitation, strictly abide by State rules and standards on labor safety and sanitation, educate laborers in labor safety and sanitation, prevent accidents in the process of labor, and reduce occupational hazards.

Article 53

Labor safety and sanitation facilities shall meet State-fixed standards.

The labor safety and sanitation facilities of new projects and projects of renovation and expansion shall be designed, constructed and put into operation and use at the same time as the main projects.
Article 54

The employer shall provide laborers with labor safety and sanitation conditions meeting State stipulations and necessary articles of labor protection, and carry out regular health examination for laborers engaged in work with occupational hazards.

Article 55

Laborers to be engaged in special operations shall receive specialized training and acquire qualifications for these special operations.

Article 56

Laborers should strictly follow rules on safe operation in the process of labor.

Laborers shall have the right to refuse to follow orders if the management personnel of the employer direct or force them to work in violation of regulations, and to criticize, expose and accuse any acts endangering the safety of their life and physical health.

Article 57

The State shall establish a system for the statistical report and treatment of accidents of injuries or deaths and cases of occupational diseases. The labor administrative departments and other relevant departments under the peoples governments at or above the county level and the employer shall, in accordance with law, carry out statistical report and disposition with respect to accidents of injuries or deaths occurred to laborers in the process of their work and situations of occupational diseases.

Chapter 7 - Special Protection for Female Staff and Workers and Juvenile Workers

Article 58

The State provides special protection to female staff and workers and juvenile workers. Juvenile workers refer to laborers up to 16 years old but below 18 years old.

Article 59

It is forbidden to arrange underground work for women workers at mines, or any labor with Grade IV physical labor intensity as stipulated by the State, or other labor forbidden to women.

Article 60

It is forbidden to engage women workers in work high above the ground, under low temperatures, or in cold water during their menstrual periods or labor with Grade III physical labor intensity as stipulated by the State.

Article 61

It is forbidden to engage women workers during their pregnancy in work with Grade III physical labor intensity as stipulated by the State or other work the State prevents them from doing during pregnancy. It is forbidden to prolong the work hours of women workers pregnant for seven months or ask them to work night shifts.

Article 62

Birth-giving women workers shall be entitled to maternity leaves no
Article 63

It is forbidden to engage women workers in work with Grade III physical labor intensity as stipulated by the State during their breast-feeding of babies less than one year old and other labor the State prevents them from doing during their breast feeding periods. Neither shall their work hours be prolonged nor they be asked to work night shifts during these periods.

Article 64

It is forbidden to engage underage workers in work under wells at mines, poisonous or harmful work, labor Grade IV physical labor intensity as stipulated by the State, or any other labour the State prevents them from doing.

Article 65

The employer shall carry out regular physical examinations for underage workers.

Chapter 8 - Professional Training

Article 66

The State shall promote the cause of professional training through various channels and by various measures to develop the professional skills of laborers, improve their quality, and strengthen their employment and work abilities.

Article 67

Peoples governments at all levels shall include professional training into their programs for social and economic development, and encourage and support enterprises, institutional organizations, social groups, and individuals to carry out professional training in various forms.

Article 68

The employer shall establish a system for professional training, extract and use funds for professional training according to State regulations, and provide laborers with professional training in a planned way and according to its specific conditions.

Laborers to be engaged in technical work shall receive training before taking up their posts.

Article 69

The State shall determine occupational classification, set up professional skill standards for specific occupations, and practice a system of professional qualification certificates. Examination and appraisal organizations authorized by governments shall be charged to carry out examination and appraisal of the professional skills of laborers.

Chapter 9 - Social Insurance and Welfare Treatment

Article 70

The State shall promote the development of the cause of social insurance, establish a social insurance system, and set up social insurance funds so that laborers can receive help and compensation when they become old, suffer diseases or work-related injuries, lose their jobs, and give birth.

Article 71

The level of social insurance shall be brought in line with the level of social and economic development and social sustainability.

Article 72

The sources of social insurance funds shall be determined according to the categories of insurance, and the practice of unified accumulation of insurance funds shall be introduced. The employer and individual laborers shall participate in social insurance in accordance with law and pay social insurance costs.

Article 73

Laborers shall be entitled to social insurance treatment in any one of the following cases:

1. Retire;
2. Suffer diseases or injuries;
3. Become disabled during work or suffer occupational diseases;
4. Become jobless;
5. Give births.

The dependents of the laborer who dies shall enjoy, in accordance with law, subsidies provided to these dependents.

The conditions and standards on the eligibility of laborers for social insurance treatment shall be stipulated by laws and regulations.

The social insurance funds for laborers shall be paid in due time and in full.

Article 74

Organizations charged with the task of handling social insurance funds shall collect, keep and use social insurance funds in accordance with stipulations in laws, and assume the responsibility to guarantee and multiply the value of these funds.

Organizations charged to supervise social insurance funds shall supervise in accordance with law stipulations, the collection, keeping and use of social insurance funds.

The establishment and functioning of the organizations in the preceding two clauses shall be specified by law.

No unit or individuals shall be allowed to use social insurance funds for other purposes.

Article 75

The State encourages the employer to set up supplementary insurance for laborers according to its practical conditions.

Article 76

The State shall promote the development of the social welfare cause, construct public welfare facilities, and provide conditions for laborers to rest and recuperate and convalesce.

The employer shall create conditions to improve collective welfare and provide laborers with better welfare treatment.
Chapter 10 - Labor Disputes

Article 77

In case of labor disputes between the employer and laborers, the parties concerned can apply for mediation or arbitration, bring the case to courts, or settle them through consultation.

The principle of mediation is applicable to arbitration and court procedures.

Article 78

Labor disputes shall be settled according to the principle of justice, fairness, and promptness so as to safeguard the legitimate rights and interests of the parties involved in these disputes in accordance with law.

Article 79

Once a labor dispute occurs, the parties involved can apply to the labor dispute mediation committee of their unit for mediation; if it can not be settled through mediation and one of the parties asks for arbitration, application can be filed to a labor dispute arbitration committee for arbitration. Any one of the parties involved in the case can also apply to a labor dispute arbitration committee for arbitration. The party that has objections to the ruling of the labor arbitration committee can bring the case to a peoples court.

Article 80

A labor dispute mediation committee can be set up inside the employer. This committee shall be composed of workers representatives, the representatives of the employer, and trade union representatives. The chairmanship of this committee shall be held by a trade union representative.

Agreements reached on labor disputes through mediations shall be implemented by the parties involved.

Article 81

Labor dispute arbitration committees shall be composed of the representatives of labor administrative departments, representatives from trade unions at the same level, and the employers representatives. The chairmanship of such a committee shall be held by the representative of a labor administrative department.

Article 82

The party that asks for arbitration shall file a written application to a labor dispute arbitration committee within 60 days starting from the date of the occurrence of a labor dispute. Generally speaking, the arbitration committee shall produce a ruling within 60 days after receiving the application. The parties involved shall implement arbitration rulings if they do not have any objections to these rulings.

Article 83

If any of the parties involved in a labor dispute has objections to an arbitration ruling, it can raise a lawsuit with a peoples court within 15 days after receiving the ruling. If one of the parties involved neither raises a lawsuit nor implements the arbitration ruling within the legal period of time, the other party can apply to a people's court for forced implementation.

Article 84

Cases of disputes resulted from the conclusion of collective contracts shall be handled through consultation by all the parties concerned brought together by the labor administrative department of a local people's government if these cases can not be handled through consultation between the parties involved. Cases of disputes resulted from the implementation of collective contracts shall be brought to a labor dispute arbitration committee for arbitration if these cases can not be solved through consultation between the parties involved. The party that has objections to a ruling can raise a lawsuit with a people's court within 15 days after receiving the ruling.
