1 The European Convention on Human Rights

2 Preamble

3 The Governments signatory hereto, being Members of the Council of Europe,

4 Considering the Universal Declaration of Human Rights proclaimed by the General Assembly of the United Nations on 10 December 1948;

5 Considering that this Declaration aims at securing the universal and effective recognition and observance of the Rights therein declared;

6 Considering that the aim of the Council of Europe is the achievement of greater unity between its Members and that one of the methods by which the aim is to be pursued is the maintenance and further realisation of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms;

7 Reaffirming their profound belief in those Fundamental Freedoms which are the foundation of justice and peace in the world and are best maintained on the one hand by an effective political democracy and on the other by a common understanding and observance of the Human Rights upon which they depend;

8 Being resolved, as the Governments of European countries which are like-minded and have a common heritage of political traditions, ideals, freedom and the rule of law to take the first steps for the collective enforcement of certain of the Rights stated in the Universal Declaration;

9 Have agreed as follows:

10 Article 1

The High Contracting Parties shall secure to everyone within their jurisdiction the rights and freedoms defined in Section I of this Convention. 11

12 Section I

13 Article 2

14 1. Everyone's right to life shall be protected by law. No one shall be deprived of his life intentionally save in the execution of a sentence of a court following his conviction of a crime for which this penalty is provided by law.

15 2. Deprivation of life shall not be regarded as inflicted in contravention of this article when it results from the use of force which is no more than absolutely necessary:

16 (a) in defence of any person from unlawful violence;

17 (b) in order to effect a lawful arrest or to prevent the escape of a person lawfully detained;

18 (c) in action lawfully taken for the purpose of quelling a riot or insurrection.

19 Article 3

20 No one shall be subjected to torture or to inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.

21 Article 4

22 1. No one shall be held in slavery or servitude.

23 2. No one shall be required to perform forced or compulsory labour.

24 3. For the purpose of this article the term "forced or compulsory labour" shall not include:

25 (a) any work required to be done in the ordinary course of detention imposed according to the provisions of Article 5 of this Convention or during conditional release from such detention;

(b) any service of a military character or, in case of conscientious 26
objectors in countries where they are recognised, service exacted instead of compulsory military service;

(c) any service exacted in case of an emergency or calamity threat- 27
ening the life or well-being of the community;

(d) any work or service which forms part of normal civic obliga- 28 tions.

Article 5

1. Everyone has the right to liberty and security of person. 30

No one shall be deprived of his liberty save in the following cases 31 and in accordance with a procedure prescribed by law:

(a) the lawful detention of a person after conviction by a competent 32 court;

(b) the lawful arrest or detention of a person for non-compliance 33 with the lawful order of a court or in order to secure the fulfilment of any obligation prescribed by law;

(c) the lawful arrest or detention of a person effected for the purpose 34 of bringing him before the competent legal authority on reasonable suspicion of having committed an offence or when it is reasonably considered necessary to prevent his committing an offence or fleeing after having done so;

(d) the detention of a minor by lawful order for the purpose of educa- 35 tional supervision or his lawful detention for the purpose of bringing him before the competent legal authority;

(e) the lawful detention of persons for the prevention of the spread- 36

ing of infectious diseases, of persons of unsound mind, alcoholics or drug addicts, or vagrants;

37 (f) the lawful arrest or detention of a person to prevent his effecting an unauthorised entry into the country or of a person against whom action is being taken with a view to deportation or extradition.

38 2. Everyone who is arrested shall be informed promptly, in a language which he understands, of the reasons for his arrest and the charge against him.

39 3. Everyone arrested or detained in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 1(c) of this article shall be brought promptly before a judge or other officer authorised by law to exercise judicial power and shall be entitled to trial within a reasonable time or to release pending trial. Release may be conditioned by guarantees to appear for trial.

40 4. Everyone who is deprived of his liberty by arrest or detention shall be entitled to take proceedings by which the lawfulness of his detention shall be decided speedily by a court and his release ordered if the detention is not lawful.

41 5. Everyone who has been the victim of arrest or detention in contravention of the provisions of this article shall have an enforceable right to compensation.

42 Article 6

43 1. In the determination of his civil rights and obligations or of any criminal charge against him, everyone is entitled to a fair and public hearing within a reasonable time by an independent and impartial tribunal established by law. Judgement shall be pronounced publicly by the press and public may be excluded from all or part of the trial in the interest of morals, public order or national security in a democratic society, where the interests of juveniles or the protection of the private life of the parties so require, or to the extent strictly necessary in the opinion of the court in special circumstances where publicity would prejudice the interests of justice.

2. Everyone charged with a criminal offence shall be presumed innocent until proved guilty according to law. 44

3. Everyone charged with a criminal offence has the following minimum rights: 45

(a) to be informed promptly, in a language which he understands and in detail, of the nature and cause of the accusation against him; 46

(b) to have adequate time and the facilities for the preparation of his defence; 47

(c) to defend himself in person or through legal assistance of his own choosing or, if he has not sufficient means to pay for legal assistance, to be given it free when the interests of justice so require; 48

(d) to examine or have examined witnesses against him and to obtain the attendance and examination of witnesses on his behalf under the same conditions as witnesses against him; 49

(e) to have the free assistance of an interpreter if he cannot understand or speak the language used in court. 50

Article 7 51

1. No one shall be held guilty of any criminal offence on account of any act or omission which did not constitute a criminal offence under national or international law at the time when it was committed. Nor shall a heavier penalty be imposed than the one that was applicable at the time the criminal offence was committed. 52

53 2. This article shall not prejudice the trial and punishment of any 60 person for any act or omission which, at the time when it was committed, was criminal according to the general principles of law recognised by civilized nations.

54 Article 8

55 1. Everyone has the right to respect for his private and family life, his home and his correspondence.

56 2. There shall be no interference by a public authority with the exercise of this right except such as is in accordance with the law and is necessary in a democratic society in the interests of national security, public safety or the economic well-being of the country, for the prevention of disorder or crime, for the protection of health or morals, or for the protection of the rights and freedoms of others.

57 Article 9

58 1. Everyone has the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion; this right includes freedom to change his religion or belief, and freedom, either alone or in community with others and in public or private, to manifest his religion or belief, in worship, teaching, practice and observance.

59 2. Freedom to manifest one's religion or beliefs shall be subject only to such limitations as are prescribed by law and are necessary in a democratic society in the interests of public safety, for the protection of public order, health or morals, or the protection of the rights and freedoms of others.

Article 10

61 1. Everyone has the right to freedom of expression. This right shall include freedom to hold opinions and to receive and impart information and ideas without interference by public authority and regardless of frontiers. This article shall not prevent States from requiring the licensing of broadcasting, television or cinema enterprises.

62 2. The exercise of these freedoms, since it carries with it duties and responsibilities, may be subject to such formalities, conditions, restrictions or penalties as are prescribed by law and are necessary in a democratic society, in the interests of national security, territorial integrity or public safety, for the prevention of disorder or crime, for the protection of health or morals, for the protection of the reputation or the rights of others, for preventing the disclosure of information received in confidence, or for maintaining the authority and impartiality of the judiciary.

Article 11

64 1. Everyone has the right to freedom of peaceful assembly and to freedom of association with others, including the right to form and to join trade unions for the protection of his interests.

65 2. No restrictions shall be placed on the exercise of these rights other than such as are prescribed by law and are necessary in a democratic society in the interests of national security or public safety, for the prevention of disorder or crime, for the protection of health or morals or for the protection of the rights and freedoms of others. This article shall not prevent the imposition of lawful restrictions on the exercise of these rights by members of the armed forces, of the police or of the administration of the State.

66 Article 12

67 Men and women of marriageable age have the right to marry and to found a family, according to the national laws governing the exercise of this right.

68 Article 13

69 Everyone whose rights and freedoms as set forth in this Convention are violated shall have an effective remedy before a national authority notwithstanding that the violation has been committed by persons acting in an official capacity.

70 Article 14

71 The enjoyment of the rights and freedoms set forth in this Convention shall be secured without discrimination on any ground such as sex, race, colour, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, association with a national minority, property, birth or other status.

72 Article 15

73 1. In time of war or other public emergency threatening the life of the nation any High Contracting Party may take measures derogating from its obligations under this Convention to the extent strictly required by the exigencies of the situation, provided that such measures are not inconsistent with its other obligations under international law.

74 2. No derogation from Article 2, except in respect of deaths resulting from lawful acts of war, or from Articles 3, 4 (paragraph 1) and 7 shall be made under this provision.

3. Any High Contracting Party availing itself of this right of deroga- 75 tion shall keep the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe fully informed of the measures which it has taken and the reasons therefor. It shall also inform the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe when such measures have ceased to operate and the provisions of the Convention are again being fully executed.

Article 16 76

Nothing in Articles 10, 11, and 14 shall be regarded as prevent- 77
ing the High Contracting Parties from imposing restrictions on the political activity of aliens.

Article 17 78

Nothing in this Convention may be interpreted as implying for any 79
State, group or person any right to engage in any activity or perform any act aimed at the destruction of any of the rights and freedoms set forth herein or at their limitation to a greater extent than is provided for in the Convention.

Article 18 80

The restrictions permitted under this Convention to the said rights 81 and freedoms shall not be applied for any purpose other than those for which they have been prescribed.

82 Section II

83 Article 19

84 To ensure the observance of the engagements undertaken by the High Contracting Parties in the present Convention, there shall be set up:

85 1. A European Commission of Human Rights hereinafter referred to as “the Commission”;

86 2. A European Court of Human Rights, hereinafter referred to as “the Court”.

87 Section III

88 Article 20

89 The Commission shall consist of a number of members equal to that of the High Contracting Parties. No two members of the Commission may be nationals of the same state.

90 Article 21

91 1. The members of the Commission shall be elected by the Committee of Ministers by an absolute majority of votes, from a list of names drawn up by the Bureau of the Consultative Assembly; each group of the Representatives of the High Contracting Parties in the Consultative Assembly shall put forward three candidates, of whom two at least shall be its nationals.

92 2. As far as applicable, the same procedure shall be followed to complete the Commission in the event of other States subsequently becoming Parties to this Convention, and in filling casual vacancies.

93 Article 22

94 1. The members of the Commission shall be elected for a period of six years. They may be re-elected. However, of the members elected at the first election, the terms of seven members shall expire at the end of three years.

95 2. The members whose terms are to expire at the end of the initial period of three years shall be chosen by lot by the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe immediately after the first election has been completed.

96 3. A member of the Commission elected to replace a member whose term of office has not expired shall hold office for the remainder of his predecessor's term.

4. The members of the Commission shall hold office until replaced. After having been replaced, they shall continue to deal with such cases as they already have under consideration. 97

Article 23 98

The members of the Commission shall sit on the Commission in their individual capacity. 99

Article 24 100

Any High Contracting Party may refer to the Commission, through the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe, any alleged breach of the provisions of the Convention by another High Contracting Party. 101

Article 25 102

1. The Commission may receive petitions addressed to the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe from any person, non-governmental organization or group of individuals claiming to be the victim of a violation by one of the High Contracting Parties of the rights set forth in this Convention, provided that the High Contracting Party against which the complaint has been lodged has declared that it recognizes the competence of the Commission to receive such petitions. Those of the High Contracting Parties who have made such a declaration undertake not to hinder in any way the effective exercise of this right. 103

2. Such declarations may be made for a specific period. 104

3. The declarations shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe who shall transmit copies thereof to the High Contracting Parties and publish them.

106 4. The Commission shall only exercise the powers provided for in this article when at least six High Contracting Parties are bound by declarations made in accordance with the preceding paragraphs.

107 Article 26

108 The Commission may only deal with the matter after all domestic remedies have been exhausted, according to the generally recognised rules of international law, and within a period of six months from the date on which the final decision was taken.

109 Article 27

110 1. The Commission shall not deal with any petition submitted under Article 25 which:

111 (a) is anonymous, or

112 (b) is substantially the same as a matter which has already been examined by the Commission or has already been submitted to another procedure or international investigation or settlement and if it contains no relevant new information.

113 2. The Commission shall consider inadmissible any petition submitted under Article 25 which it considers incompatible with the provisions of the present Convention, manifestly ill-founded, or an abuse of the right of petition.

114 3. The Commission shall reject any petition referred to it which it considers inadmissible under Article 26.

Article 28

In the event of the Commission accepting a petition referred to it: 116

(a) it shall, with a view to ascertaining the facts undertake together with the representatives of the parties and examination of the petition and, if need be, an investigation, for the effective conduct of which the States concerned shall furnish all necessary facilities, after an exchange of views with the Commission; 117

(b) it shall place itself at the disposal of the parties concerned with a view to securing a friendly settlement of the matter on the basis of respect for Human Rights as defined in this Convention. 118

Article 29

1. The Commission shall perform the functions set out in Article 28 by means of a Sub-Commission consisting of seven members of the Commission. 119

2. Each of the parties concerned may appoint as members of this Sub-Commission a person of its choice. 121

3. The remaining members shall be chosen by lot in accordance with arrangements prescribed in the Rules of Procedure of the Commission. 122

Article 30

1. If the Sub-Commission succeeds in effecting a friendly settlement in accordance with Article 28, it shall draw up a Report which shall be sent to the States concerned, to the Committee of Ministers and to the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe for publication. This Report shall be confined to a brief statement of the facts and of the solution reached. 124

125 Article 31

126 1. If a solution is not reached, the Commission shall draw up a Report on the facts and state its opinion as to whether the facts found disclose a breach by the State concerned of its obligations under the Convention. The opinions of all the members of the Commission on this point may be stated in the Report.

127 2. The Report shall be transmitted to the Committee of Ministers. It shall also be transmitted to the States concerned, who shall not be at liberty to publish it.

128 3. In transmitting the Report to the Committee of Ministers the Commission may make such proposals as it thinks fit.

129 Article 32

130 1. If the question is not referred to the Court in accordance with Article 48 of this Convention within a period of three months from the date of the transmission of the Report to the Committee of Ministers, the Committee of Ministers shall decide by a majority of two-thirds of the members entitled to sit on the Committee whether there has been a violation of the Convention.

131 2. In the affirmative case the Committee of Ministers shall prescribe a period during which the Contracting Party concerned must take the measures required by the decision of the Committee of Ministers.

132 3. If the High Contracting Party concerned has not taken satisfactory measures within the prescribed period, the Committee of Ministers shall decide by the majority provided for in paragraph 1 above what effect shall be given to its original decision and shall publish the Report.

133 4. The High Contracting Parties undertake to regard as binding on them any decision which the Committee of Ministers may take in application of the preceding paragraphs.

Article 33

134

The Commission shall meet “in camera”.

135

Article 34

136

The Commission shall take its decision by a majority of the Members present and voting; the Sub-Commission shall take its decisions by a majority of its members.

137

Article 35

138

The Commission shall meet as the circumstances require. The meetings shall be convened by the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe.

139

Article 36

140

The Commission shall draw up its own rules of procedure.

141

Article 37

142

The Secretariat of The Commission shall be provided by the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe.

144 Section IV

145 Article 38

146 The European Court of Human Rights shall consist of a number of judges equal to that of the Members of the Council of Europe. No two judges may be nationals of the State.

147 Article 39

148 1. The members of the Court shall be elected by the Consultative Assembly by a majority of the votes cast from a list of persons nominated by Members of the Council of Europe; each Member shall nominate three candidates, of whom two at least shall be its nationals.

149 2. As far as applicable, the same procedure shall be followed to complete the Court in the event of the admission of new members of the Council of Europe, and in filling casual vacancies.

150 3. The candidates shall be of high moral character and must either possess the qualifications required for appointment to high judicial office or be jurisconsults of recognised competence.

151 Article 40

152 1. The members of the Court shall be elected for a period of nine years. They may be re-elected. However, of the members elected at the first election the terms of four members shall expire at the end of three years, and the terms of four more members shall expire at the end of six years.

153 2. The members whose terms are to expire at the end of the initial periods of three and six years shall be chosen by lot by the Secretary-General immediately after the first election has been completed.

3. A member of the Court elected to replace a member whose term of office has not expired shall hold office for the remainder of his predecessor's term. 154

4. The members of the Court shall hold office until replaced. After having been replaced, they shall continue to deal with such cases as they already have under consideration. 155

Article 41 156

The Court shall elect the President and Vice-President for a period of three years. They may be re-elected. 157

Article 42 158

The members of the Court shall receive for each day of duty a compensation to be determined by the Committee of Ministers. 159

Article 43 160

For the consideration of each case brought before it the Court shall consist of a Chamber composed of seven judges. There shall sit as an 'ex officio' member of the Chamber the judge who is a national of any State party concerned, or, if there is none, a person of its choice who shall sit in the capacity of judge; the names of the other judges shall be chosen by lot by the President before the opening of the case. 161

Article 44 162

Only the High Contracting Parties and the Commission shall have 163

the right to bring a case before the Court.

164 Article 45

165 The jurisdiction of the Court shall extend to all cases concerning the interpretation and application of the present Convention which the High Contracting Parties or the Commission shall refer to it in accordance with Article 48.

166 Article 46

167 1. Any of the High Contracting Parties may at any time declare that it recognizes as compulsory 'ipso facto' and without special agreement the jurisdiction of the Court in all matters concerning the interpretation and application of the present Convention.

168 2. The declarations referred to above may be made unconditionally or on condition of reciprocity on the part of several or certain other High Contracting Parties or for a specified period.

169 3. These declarations shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe who shall transmit copies thereof to the High Contracting Parties.

170 Article 47

171 The Court may only deal with a case after the Commission has acknowledged the failure of efforts for a friendly settlement and within the period of three months provided for in Article 32.

172 Article 48

173 The following may bring a case before the Court, provided that the High Contracting Party concerned, if there is only one, or the High Contracting Parties concerned, if there is more than one, are subject to the compulsory jurisdiction of the Court, or failing that, with the consent of the High Contracting Party concerned, if there is only one, or of the High Contracting Parties concerned if there is more than one:

(a) the Commission; 174

(b) a High Contracting Party whose national is alleged to be a vic- 175 tim;

(c) a High Contracting Party which referred the case to the Com- 176 mission;

(d) a High Contracting Party against which the complaint has been 177 lodged.

Article 49 178

In the event of dispute as to whether the Court has jurisdiction, the 179 matter shall be settled by the decision of the Court.

Article 50 180

If the Court finds that a decision or a measure taken by a legal au- 181 thority or any other authority of a High Contracting Party, is completely or partially in conflict with the obligations arising from the present Convention, and if the internal law of the said Party allows only partial reparation to be made for the consequences of this decision or measure, the decision of the Court shall, if necessary, afford just satisfaction to the injured party.

Article 51

- 183 1. Reasons shall be given for the judgement of the Court.
- 184 2. If the judgement does not represent in whole or in part the unanimous opinion of the judges, any judges shall be entitled to deliver a separate opinion.

2. No case can be brought before the Court before this election.

Article 52

186 The judgement of the Court shall be final.

Article 53

188 The High Contracting Parties undertake to abide by the decision of the Court in any case to which they are parties.

Article 54

190 The judgement of the Court shall be transmitted to the Committee of Ministers which shall supervise its execution.

Article 55

192 The Court shall draw up its own rules and shall determine its own procedure.

Article 56

- 194 1. The first election of the members of the Court shall take place after the declarations by the High Contracting Parties mentioned in Article 46 have reached a total of eight.

196 Section V

197 Article 57

198 On receipt of a request from the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe any High Contracting Party shall furnish an explanation of the manner in which its internal law ensures the effective implementation of any of the provisions of this Convention.

199 Article 58

200 The expenses of the Commission and the Court shall be borne by the Council of Europe.

201 Article 59

202 The members of the Commission and of the Court shall be entitled, during the discharge of their functions, to the privileges and immunities provided for in Article 40 of the Statute of the Council of Europe and in the agreements made thereunder.

203 Article 60

204 Nothing in this Convention shall be construed as limiting or derogating from any of the human rights and fundamental freedoms which may be ensured under the laws of any High Contracting Party or under any other agreement to which it is a Party.

205 Article 61

206 Nothing in this Convention shall prejudice the powers conferred on the Committee of Ministers by the Statute of the Council of Europe.

Article 62

207

The High Contracting Parties agree that, except by special agreement, they will not avail themselves of treaties, conventions or declarations in force between them for the purpose of submitting, by way of petition, a dispute arising out of the interpretation or application of this Convention to a means of settlement other than those provided for in this Convention.

208

Article 63

209

1. Any State may at the time of its ratification or at any time thereafter declare by notification addressed to the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe that the present Convention shall extend to all or any of the territories for whose international relations it is responsible.

210

2. The Convention shall extend to the territory or territories named in the notification as from the thirtieth day after the receipt of this notification by the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe.

211

3. The provisions of this Convention shall be applied in such territories with due regard, however, to local requirements.

212

4. Any State which has made a declaration in accordance with paragraph 1 of this article may at any time thereafter declare on behalf of one or more of the territories to which the declaration relates that it accepts the competence of the Commission to receive petitions from individuals, non-governmental organizations or groups of individuals in accordance with Article 25 of the present Convention.

213

Article 64

214

1. Any State may, when signing this Convention or when depositing its instrument of ratification, make a reservation in respect of any particular provision of the Convention to the extent that any law then in force in its territory is not in conformity with the provision. Reservations of a general character shall not be permitted under this article.

215

216 2. Any reservation made under this article shall contain a brief statement of the law concerned.

217 Article 65

218 1. A High Contracting Party may denounce the present Convention only after the expiry of five years from the date of which it became a Party to it and after six months' notice contained in a notification addressed to the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe, who shall inform the other High Contracting Parties.

219 2. Such a denunciation shall not have the effect of releasing the High Contracting Party concerned from its obligations under this Convention in respect of any act which, being capable of constituting a violation of such obligations, may have been performed by it before the date at which the denunciation became effective.

220 3. Any High Contracting Party which shall cease to be a Member of the Council of Europe shall cease to be a Party to this Convention under the same conditions.

221 4. The Convention may be denounced in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraphs in respect of any territory to which it has been declared to extend under the terms Article 63.

222 Article 66

223 1. This Convention shall be open to the signature of the Members of the Council of Europe. It shall be ratified. Ratifications shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe.

224 2. The present Convention shall come into force after the deposit of ten instruments of ratification.

225 3. As regards any signatory ratifying subsequently, the Convention shall come into force at the date of the deposit of itsP!nstrument of ratification.

226 4. The Secretary-General of the Council of Europe shall notify all the Members of the Council of Europe of the entry into force of the Convention, the names of the High Contracting Parties who have ratified it, and the deposit of all instruments of ratification which may be effected subsequently.

227 Done at Rome this 4th day of November, 1950, in English and French, both text being equally authentic, in a single copy which shall remain deposited in the archives of the Council of Europe. The Secretary-General shall transmit certified copies to each of the signatories.* 228

Protocols

230 Protocol 1. Enforcement of certain Rights and Freedoms not included in Section I of the Convention [1952]

231 Preamble

232 The Governments signatory hereto, being Members of the Council of Europe,

233 Being resolved to take steps to ensure the collective enforcement of certain rights and freedoms other than those already included in Section I of the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms signed at Rome on 4th November, 1950
(hereinafter referred to as 'the Convention'),

234 Have agreed as follows:

235 Article 1

236 Every natural or legal person is entitled to the peaceful enjoyment of his possessions. No one shall be deprived of his possessions except in the public interest and subject to the conditions provided for by law and by the general principles of international law.

237 The preceding provisions shall not, however, in any way impair the right of a State to enforce such laws as it deems necessary to control the use of property in accordance with the general interest or to secure the payment of taxes or other contributions or penalties.

238 Article 2

239 No person shall be denied the right to education. In the exercise of any functions which it assumes in relation to education and to teaching, the State shall respect the right of parents to ensure such education and teaching in conformity with their own religions and philosophical convictions.

Article 3

240

The High Contracting Parties undertake to hold free elections at reasonable intervals by secret ballot, under conditions which will ensure the free expression of the opinion of the people in the choice of the legislature.

241

Article 4

242

Any High Contracting Party may at the time of signature or ratification or at any time thereafter communicate to the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe a declaration stating the extent to which it undertakes that the provisions of the present Protocol shall apply to such of the territories for the international relations of which it is responsible as are named therein.

243

Any High Contracting Party which has communicated a declaration in virtue of the preceding paragraph may from time to time communicate a further declaration modifying the terms of any former declaration or terminating the application of the provisions of this Protocol in respect of any territory.

244

A declaration made in accordance with this article shall be deemed to have been made in accordance with paragraph 1 of Article 63 of the Convention.

245

Article 5

246

As between the High Contracting Parties the provisions of Articles 1, 2,

247

3 and 4 of this Protocol shall be regarded as additional articles to the convention and all the provisions of the Convention shall apply accordingly. ²⁴⁸

²⁴⁹ Article 6

²⁵⁰ This Protocol shall be open for signature by the Members of the Council of Europe, who are the signatories of the Convention; it shall be ratified at the same time as or after the ratification of the Convention. It shall enter into force after the deposit of ten instruments of ratification. As regards any signatory ratifying subsequently, the Protocol shall enter into force at the date of the deposit of its instrument of ratification.

²⁵¹ The instruments of ratification shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe, who will notify all the Members of the names of those who have ratified.

²⁵² Done at Paris on the 20th day of March 1952, In English and French, both text being equally authentic, in a single copy which shall remain deposited in the archives of the Council of Europe. The Secretary-General shall transmit certified copies to each of the signatory Governments

253 Protocol 2. Conferring upon the European Court of Human Rights Competence to give Advisory Opinions [1963]

254 Preamble

255 The Member States of the Council of Europe signatory hereto:

256 Having regard to the provisions of the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms signed at Rome on 4 November 1950 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Convention'), and in particular Article

257 19 instituting, among other bodies, a European Court of Human Rights (hereinafter referred to as 'the Court');

258 Considering that it is expedient to confer upon the Court competence to give advisory opinions subject to certain conditions;

259 Have agreed as follows:

260 Article 1

261 1. The Court may, at the request of the Committee of Ministers, give advisory opinions on legal questions concerning the interpretation of the Convention and the Protocols thereto.

262 2. Such opinions shall not deal with any question relating to the content or scope of the rights or freedoms defined in Section I of the convention and in the Protocols thereto, or with any other question which the Commission, the Court, or the committee of Ministers might have to consider in consequence of any such proceedings as could be instituted in accordance with the Convention.

263 3. Decisions of the Committee of Ministers to request an advisory opinion of the Court shall require a two-thirds majority vote of the representatives entitled to sit on the Committee.

Article 2

264

The Court shall decide whether a request for an advisory opinion submitted by the Committee of Ministers is within its consultative competence as defined in Article 1 of this Protocol.

265

Article 3

266

1. For the consideration of requests for an advisory opinion, the Court shall sit in plenary session.

267

2. Reasons shall be given for advisory opinions of the Court.

268

3. If the advisory opinion does not represent in whole or in part the unanimous opinion of the judges, any judge shall be entitled to deliver a separate opinion.

269

4. Advisory opinions of the Court shall be communicated to the Committee of Ministers.

270

Article 4

271

The powers of the Court under Article 55 of the Convention shall extend to the drawing up of such rules and the determination of such procedure as the Court may think necessary for the purposes of this Protocol.

272

Article 5

273

1. This Protocol shall be open to signature by member States of the Council of Europe, signatories to the Convention, who may become Parties to it by:

274

(a) signature without reservation in respect of ratification or acceptance;

275

276 (b) signature with reservation in respect of ratification or acceptance, followed by ratification or acceptance. Instruments of ratification or acceptance shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe.

277 2. This Protocol shall enter into force as soon as all the States Parties to the Convention shall have become Parties to the Protocol in accordance with the Provisions of paragraph 1 of this article.

278 3. From the date of the entry into force of this Protocol, Articles 1 to 4 shall be considered an integral part of the Convention.

279 4. The Secretary-General of the Council of Europe shall notify the Member States of the Council of:

280 (a) any signature without reservation in respect of ratification or acceptance;

281 (b) any signature with reservation in respect of ratification or acceptance;

282 (c) the deposit of any instrument of ratification or acceptance;

283 (d) the date of entry into force of this Protocol in accordance with paragraph 2 of this article.

284 Recitals

285 In witness whereof the undersigned, being duly authorised thereto, have signed this Protocol.

286 Done at Strasbourg, this 6th day of May 1963, in English and French, both text being equally authentic, in a single copy which shall remain deposited in the archives of the Council of Europe.
The Secretary-General shall transmit certified copies to each of the signatory States.

287 Protocol 3. Amending Articles 29, 30, and 94 of the 288 Convention [1963]

288 Preamble

289 The member States of the Council, signatories to this Protocol, 290 Considering that it is advisable to amend certain provisions of the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental 291 Freedoms signed at Rome on 4 November 1950 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Convention') concerning the procedure of the European Commission of Human Rights,
Have agreed as follows:

292 Article 1

293 1. Article 29 of the Convention is deleted.
294 2. The following provision shall be inserted in the Convention:
295 "Article 29
296 After it has accepted a petition submitted under Article 25, the Commission may nevertheless decide unanimously to reject the petition if, in the course of its examination, it finds that the existence of one of the grounds for non-acceptance provided for in Article 27 has been established.
297 In such a case, the decision shall be communicated to the parties."

298 Article 2

299 1. At the beginning of Article 34 of the Convention, the following shall be inserted: "Subject to the provisions of Article 29..."

300 2. At the end of the same article, the sentence "the Sub-commission shall take its decisions by a majority of its members" shall be deleted.

Article 4

301
302 1. The Protocol shall be open to signature by the member States of the Council of Europe, who may become Parties to it either by:
303 (a) signature without reservation in respect of ratification or acceptance, or 304 (b) signature with reservation in respect of ratification or acceptance, followed by ratification or acceptance. Instruments of ratification shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe.
305 2. This Protocol shall enter force as soon as all States Parties to the Convention shall have become Parties to the Protocol, in accordance with paragraph 1 of this article.
306 3. The Secretary-General of the Council of Europe shall notify the Member States of the Council of:
307 (a) any signature without reservation in respect of ratification or acceptance;
308 (b) any signature with reservation in respect of ratification or acceptance;
309 (c) the deposit of any instrument of ratification or acceptance;
310 (d) the date of entry into force of this Protocol in accordance with paragraph 2 of this article.

Recitals

311

312 In witness whereof the undersigned, being duly authorised thereto,
have signed this Protocol.

313 Done at Strasbourg, this 6th day of May 1963, in English and French, both text being equally authentic, in a single copy which shall remain deposited in the archives of the Council of Europe.
The Secretary-General shall transmit certified copies to each of the
signatory States

314 Protocol 4. Protecting certain Additional Rights
315 [1963]

316 Preamble

317 The Governments signatory hereto, being Members of the Council
318 of Europe,

319 Being resolved to take steps to ensure the collective enforcement 320 of certain rights and freedoms other than those already included in 321 Section

322 1 of the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fun-323 damental Freedoms signed at Rome on 4 November 1950 (here-324 inafter referred to as 'the Convention') and in Articles 1 to 3 of 325 the First Protocol to the Convention, signed at Paris on 20 March 326 1952,

327 Have agreed as follows:

328 Article 1

329 No one shall be deprived of his liberty merely on the ground of 330 inability to fulfil a contractual obligation.

331 Article 2

332 1. Everyone lawfully within the territory of a State shall, within 333 that territory, have the right to liberty of movement and freedom 334 to choose his residence.

335 2. Everyone shall be free to leave any country, including his own.

336 3. No restrictions shall be placed on the exercise of these rights
337 other than such as are in accordance with law and are necessary 338 in a democratic society in the interests of national security or public safety for the maintenance of 'ordre public', for the prevention of crime, for the protection of rights and freedoms of others.

4. The rights set forth in paragraph 1 may also be subject, in par- 326 ticular areas, to restrictions imposed in accordance with law and justified by the public interest in a democratic society.

327 Article 3

328 1. No one shall be expelled, by means either of an individual or of 329 a collective measure, from the territory of the State of which he is 330 a national.

331 2. No one shall be deprived of the right to enter the territory of the 329
State of which he is a national.

332 Article 4

333 Collective expulsion of aliens is prohibited. 331

334 Article 5

335 1. Any High Contracting Party may, at the time of signature or 333 ratification of this Protocol, or at any time thereafter, communicate to the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe a declaration stating the extent to which it undertakes that the provisions of this Protocol shall apply to such of the territories for the international relations of which it is responsible as are named therein.

336 2. Any High Contracting Party which has communicated a decla- 334 ration in virtue of the preceding paragraph may, from time to time, communicate a further declaration modifying the terms of any former declaration or terminating the application of the provisions of this Protocol in respect of territory.

335 3. A declaration made in accordance with this article shall be deemed to have been made in accordance with paragraph 1 of Article 63 of the Convention.

336 4. The territory of any State to which this Protocol applies by virtue of the ratification or acceptance by that State, and each territory to which this Protocol is applied by virtue of a declaration by that State under this article, shall be treated as separate territories for the purpose of the references in Articles

337 2 and 3 to the territory of a State.

338 Article 6

339 1. As between the High Contracting Parties the provisions of Articles

340 1 to 5 of this Protocol shall be regarded as additional articles to the convention, and all the provisions of the Convention shall apply accordingly.

341 2. Nevertheless, the right of individual recourse recognised by a declaration made under Article 25 of the convention, or the acceptance of the compulsory jurisdiction of the court by a declaration made under Article 46 of the convention, shall not be effective in relation to this Protocol unless the High Contracting Party concerned has made a statement recognizing such a right, or accepting such jurisdiction, in respect of all or any of Articles

342 1 to 4 of the Protocol.

343 Article 7

344 1. This Protocol shall be open for signature by the members of the Council of Europe who are the signatories of the Convention; it shall be ratified at the same time as or after the ratification of the Convention. It shall enter into force after the deposit of five instruments of ratification. As regards any signatory ratifying subsequently, the Protocol shall enter into force at the date of the deposit of its instrument of ratification.

Recitals

345

The instruments of ratification shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe, who will notify all members of the names of those who have ratified.

346

In witness thereof, the undersigned, being duly authorised thereto, have signed this Protocol.

347

Done at Strasbourg, this 16th day of September 1963, in English and French, both texts being equally authentic, in a single copy which shall remain deposited in the archives of the Council of Europe. The Secretary-General shall transmit certified copies to each of the signatory States.

348

349 Protocol Amending Articles 22 and 40 of the Convention
350 [1966]

351 Preamble

352 The Governments signatory hereto, being Members of the Council
353 of Europe,

354 Considering that certain inconveniences have arisen in the appli-355 cation of the provisions of Articles 22 and 40 of the Convention for 356 the Protection of Human Rights and fundamental Freedoms signed 357 at Rome of

358 4th November 1950 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Convention') 359 relating to the length of the terms of office of the members of the 360 European Commission of Human Rights (hereinafter referred to 361 as 'the Commission') and of the European Court of Human Rights 362 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Court');

363 Considering that it is desirable to ensure as far as possible an elec-
364 tion every three years of one half of the members of the Commis-365 sion and of one third of the members of the Court;

366 Considering therefore that it is desirable to amend certain provi-
367 sions of the Convention,

368 Have agreed as follows:

369 Article 1

370 In Article 22 of the Convention, the following two paragraphs shall 371 be inserted after paragraph (2):

372 "(3) In order to ensure that, as far as possible, one half of the mem-373 bership of the Commission shall be renewed every three years, the 374 Committee of Ministers may decide, before proceeding to any sub-375 sequent election, that the term or terms of office of one or more members to be elected shall be for a period other than six years but not more than nine and not less than three years.

(4) In cases where more than one term of office is involved and the Committee of Ministers applies the preceding paragraph, the allocation of the terms of office shall be effected by the drawing of lots
by the Secretary-General, immediately after the election."

361 Article 2

In Article 22 of the Convention, the former paragraphs (3) and (4) shall become respectively paragraphs (5) and (6).

362 Article 3

In Article 40 of the Convention, the following two paragraphs shall be inserted after paragraph (2):

"(3) In order to ensure that, as far as possible, one half of the membership of the Court shall be renewed every three years, the Consultative Assembly may decide, before proceeding to any subsequent election, that the term or terms of office of one or more members to be elected shall be for a period other than nine years but not more than twelve and not less than six years.

(4) In cases where more than one term of office is involved and the Consultative Assembly applies the preceding paragraph, the allocation of the terms of office shall be effected by the drawing of lots
by the Secretary-General, immediately after the election."

363 Article 4

In Article 40 of the Convention, the former paragraphs (3) and (4) shall become respectively paragraphs (5) and (6).

369 Article 5

370 1. This Protocol shall be open to signature by Members of the Council of Europe, signatories to the Convention, who may become Parties to it by;

371 (a) signature without reservation in respect of ratification or acceptance;

372 (b) signature with reservation in respect of ratification or acceptance, followed by ratification or acceptance.

373 Instruments of ratification or acceptance shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the Council of Europe.

374 2. This Protocol shall enter into force as soon as all Contracting Parties to the Convention shall have become Parties to the Protocol, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 1 of this article.

375 3. The Secretary-General of the Council of Europe shall notify the Members of the Council of:

376 (a) any signature without reservation in respect of ratification or
acceptance;

377 (b) any signature with reservation in respect of ratification or acceptance;

378 (c) the deposit of any instrument of ratification or acceptance;

379 (d) the date of entry into force of this Protocol in accordance with paragraph 2 of this article.

380 Recitals

381 In witness whereof the undersigned, being duly authorised thereto, have signed this Protocol.

382

Done at Strasbourg, this 20th day of January 1966, in English and French, both texts being equally authentic, in a single copy which shall remain deposited in the archives of the Council of Europe.
The Secretary-General shall transmit certified copies to each of the signatory Governments.
