2. Definitions

-In this Act-

“arbitration agreement” means an agreement in writing (including an agreement contained in an exchange of letters or telegrams) to submit to arbitration present or future differences capable of settlement by arbitration;

“the Principal Act” means the Arbitration Act, 1954.

- Parts III and IV of this Act shall come into operation on such day or days as the Minister for Justice may by order appoint.

4. Repeal

-Section 12 of the Principal Act is hereby repealed.

Part II - Effect of Arbitration Agreement on Court Proceedings

5. Staying Court Proceedings where Party Proves Arbitration Agreement

(1) -If any party to an arbitration agreement, or any person claiming through or under him, commences any proceedings in any court against any other party to such agreement, or any person claiming through or under him, in respect of any matter agreed to be referred to arbitration, any party to the proceedings may at any time after an appearance has been entered, and before delivery any pleadings or taking any other steps in the proceedings, apply to the court to stay the proceedings, and the court, unless it is satisfied that the arbitration agreement is null and void, inoperative or incapable of being performed or that there is not in fact any dispute between the parties with regard to the matter agreed to be referred, shall make an order staying the proceedings.

(2) Nothing in this Section shall be construed as limiting or otherwise affecting the power conferred on the High Court pursuant to section 39 (3) of the Principal Act to refuse to stay any action brought in breach of an arbitration agreement. 19

Part III - Enforcement of New York Convention Awards 20

6. Interpretation (Part III) 21

(1) -In this Part of this Act- 22

“award” means an award (other than an award within the meaning of Part IV of this Act) made in pursuance of an arbitration agreement in the territory of a state, other than the State, which is a party to the New York Convention 23

“the New York Convention” means the Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards done at New York on the 10th day of June, 1958, which Convention is set out in the First Schedule to this Act. 24

(2) The Minister for Foreign Affairs may by order declare that any state specified in the order is a party to the New York Convention and, while such order is in force, the order shall be evidence that such state is a party to that Convention. 25

(3) The Minister for Foreign Affairs may by order revoke or amend an order under this section, including an order under this subsection. 26

7. Effect of Awards 27

(1) -An award shall, subject to the subsequent provisions of this Part, be enforceable either by action or in the same manner as the award of an arbitrator is enforceable by virtue of section 41 of the Principal Act. 28

(2) An award that would be enforceable under this Part shall be treated as binding for all purposes on the persons between whom it was made, and may accordingly be relied on by any of those persons by way of defence, set off or otherwise in any legal proceedings in the State, and any reference in this Part to the enforcement of an award shall be construed as including a reference to the reliance on such an award. 29

8. Evidence

30

-Any person who seeks to enforce an award shall produce-

31

(a) the duly authenticated original award or a duly certified copy of that award, and

32

(b) the original arbitration agreement or a duly certified copy of that agreement, and

33

(c) in any case where the award or the arbitration agreement is in a language other than one of the official languages of the State, a translation of the award or the agreement, as the case may be, certified by an official or sworn translator or by a diplomatic or consular agent.

34

9. Refusal of Enforcement

35

(1) -Enforcement of an award shall not be refused otherwise than pursuant to the subsequent provisions of this section.

36

(2) Enforcement of an award may be refused if the person against whom it is invoked proves that-

37

(a) a party to the arbitration agreement was (under the law applicable to him) under some incapacity, or

38

(b) the arbitration agreement was not valid under the law of the country to which the parties subjected it or, failing any indication thereon, under the law of the country where the award was made, or

39

(c) he was not given proper notice of the appointment of the arbitrator or of the arbitration proceedings or was otherwise unable to present his case, or

40

(d) subject to subsection (4) of this section, the award deals with a difference not contemplated by or not falling within the terms of the submission to arbitration or contains decisions on matters beyond the scope of the submission to arbitration, or

41

(e) the composition of the arbitral authority or the arbitral procedure was not in accordance with the agreement of the parties or, failing such agreement, with the law of the country where the arbitration took place, or

42

(f) the award has not yet become binding on the parties or has been set aside or suspended by a competent authority of the country in which, or under the law of which, the award was made.

43

(3) Enforcement of an award may also be refused if the award is in respect of a matter which is not capable of settlement by arbitration under the law of the State, or if it would be contrary to public policy to enforce the award.

44

(4) An award which contains decisions on matters not submitted to arbitration may be enforced to the extent that it contains decisions on matters submitted to arbitration which can be separated from any decisions on matters not so submitted.

45

(5) In any case where an application for the setting aside or suspension of an award

46

has been made to such a competent authority as is mentioned in subsection (2) (f) of this section, a court before which enforcement of the award is sought may, if it thinks fit, adjourn the proceedings and may, on the application of the party seeking to enforce the award, order the other party to give such security as the court may think fit.

10. Non-Application of Part V of Principal Act

47

-In any case where an award is also a foreign award within the meaning of Part V of the Principal Act, that Part shall not apply to such award.

48

11. Saving for other Rights

49

-Nothing in this Part shall prejudice the right of any person to enforce or to rely on an award otherwise than under this Part or under part V of the Principal Act.
