

FRAGMENTATION IN INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW – BEYOND CONFLICT OF LAWS

BUDAPEST, MAY 16, 2013
NADOR 9, MONUMENT BUILDING, ROOM 203

- 09:00-09:30    Welcome morning tea and coffee
- 09:30-10:00    Opening remarks
Andreas Føllesdal, Professor of Political Philosophy, University of Oslo
Renata Uitz, Head of Legal Studies Department, Central European University
Marjan Ajevski, Postdoctoral Researcher, University of Oslo
- 10:00-10:50    The Right to Family and Private Life Under the ECHR, ACHR and the CCPR
Lucas Lixinski, Dean's Postdoctoral Research Fellow, University of New South Wales
- 10:50-11:10    Tea/Coffee break
- 11:10-12:00    The Freedom of Assembly Under the ECHR, ACHR and the CCPR
Orsolya Salat, Assistant Professor, ELTE University Faculty for Social Sciences and Legal Institute, Centre for Social Sciences, Hungarian Academy of Sciences
- 12:00-13:30    Lunch
- 13:30-14:20    Right to Equality Under the ECHR, ACHR and the CCPR
Kristin Henrard, Professor, Erasmus University of Rotterdam

- 14:20-14:40    Tea/Coffee break
- 14:40-15:30    Freedom of Association as Related to Political Parties Under the ECHR, ACHR and the CCPR
Svetlana Tyulkina, Post-Doctoral Fellow, University of New South Wales
- 15:30-16:20    Tea/Coffee break
- 16:20-17:10    Freedom of Speech as Related to Journalists Under the ECHR, ACHR and the CCPR
Marjan Ajevski, Postdoctoral Researcher, University of Oslo
- 17:10-18:10    General Discussion and Tentative Conclusions