

Human rights-compliant policing to prevent torture and other ill-treatment in the investigation and prosecution of transnational organized crimes

Ahead of the commemoration of International Day for the Prevention of and Fight against All Forms of Transnational Organized Crime, celebrated annually on 15 November, this joint side-event aims to support States on human rights-compliant policing and law enforcement through dissemination and awareness-raising on existing methodologies, tools and resources that States are encouraged to use towards the investigation and prosecution of transnational organized crime, with a view to strengthening investigative skills and capabilities, while contributing to preventing torture and other ill-treatment and safeguarding the rights of suspects, witnesses and victims of crime.
