

INTENSIVE COURSE ON INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS – PROGRAMME

Core Time	31.08.2020 Introduction	01.09.2020 Civil-Political Rights	02.09.2020 Economic, Social and Cultural Rights	03.09.2020 Human Rights Mechanisms	04.09.2020 Thematic and Contemporary Issues
0800-0845	Introduction of NCHR, the course and participants	Participants present on human rights challenges in their respective countries	Presentation of group work	Presentation of group work	Presentation of group work
0900-0945	HR as law - from natural law to a "common standard of achievement", rights and duties to respect, protect and fulfill Dr. River Hustad	The right to freedom of opinion and expression Dr. Shavana Musa	Economic, social and cultural rights as legal rights Dr. River Hustad	UN mechanisms Dr. River Hustad	Business and human rights Ludovica Chiussi, Associate Professor
1000-1045	International law in a nutshell - sovereignty, derogations and limitations Ludovica Chiussi, Associate Professor	The right to freedom of religion or belief Dr. Shavana Musa	Economic, social and cultural rights Dr. River Hustad	Regional mechanisms Dr. Bernard Ntahiraja	Business and human rights Ludovica Chiussi, Associate Professor
1100-1145	Non-discrimination as a basic HR principle Dr. Kjersti Skarstad	Fair trial and the presumption of innocence - from interrogation to investigative interviewing Asbjørn Rachlew, Police Superintendent	Development and SDGs Peris Jones, Professor	Human rights in national law/national human rights mechanisms Matthew Saul, Associate Professor	Human rights and the environment Christina Voigt, Professor
1200-1500					'Moot court' and closing ceremony
Flexi Time	Online lecture: The history and politics of human rights (1,5 hours) Bård A. Andreassen, Professor	Group work on non-discrimination and equality	Group work on civil-political rights 'Visual tour' to Norwegian institutions working on human rights	Group work on economic, social and cultural rights	Online lecture: The rights of refugees, IDPs and stateless persons (1,5 hours) Cecilie Hellestveit, Senior Researcher