

Richmond Law's New LLM Certificate Programs

For LLM students who wish to specialize in a specific area of law, we offer two new certificates. The LLM Certificate in International Business and Certificate in Intellectual Property offer students the opportunity to explore a concentrated topic during their time at Richmond Law. These certificates complement our other international offerings, including the LLM Degree and the LLM/MBA Dual-Degree.

Certificate in International Business

Students must take a total of at least ten credits, including International Business Transactions and two or more of the following:

- Anti-Bribery Law in International Business
- Antitrust
- Business Associations
- Corporate Compliance
- Corruption in International Sports I and II
- Immigration Law
- Intellectual Property Fundamentals
- International Arbitration
- International Business Practice
- International Environmental Law
- International Intellectual Property
- International Law
- Law of The European Union
- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Sales & Leases
- Securities Regulation
- WTO Dispute Resolution

Certificate in Intellectual Property

Students must take a total of at least ten credits, including Intellectual Property Fundamentals and two or more of the following:

- Computer Law
- Copyright Law
- Cultural Property: Archaeology, Ethics & Law
- Entertainment Law
- Intellectual Property Drafting
- Intellectual Property Litigation
- International Intellectual Property
- IP & Transactional Law Clinic
- IP Law & Policy
- Patent Law
- Patent Preparation & Prosecution
- Sports & the Law
- Trademark & Unfair Competition Law
- Trademark Law

Questions? Contact Su Jin Hong, Director of International Programs: shong2@richmond.edu

Learn More: law.richmond.edu/admissions